There is an extensive genealogy of the ACKERMAN Family in the book "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte"

The Edward Ackerman Family

"Edward Ackerman was born May 2nd, 1763, and married Miriam Garrison, December 3rd, 1788; the Treaty of Paris which has been called the Cession of Canada, was signed in the year of his birth. The Ackerman family being loyal to the Crown during the Revolution, found among the thirteen colonies, flushed with victory, and uncongenial atmosphere, and early in the nineteenth century, we find Edward Ackerman located on Lot 22, south of Black River, South Marysburgh. He was a close friend of William Hudgin, a noted loyalist, who in the Revolution and again in the War of 1812 played a noble part.

"These two, while at Kingston, worked together at shoemaking, a business which allows scope for much conversation; and the old campaigner seems to have made of Edward a friend for life. At a later date, the latter was the go-between when Hudgin wished to correspond with a friend in New York city, and vice versa. In his wagon, a self-constituted rural postman, he conveyed the letters of these friends between South Marysburgh and New York city.

"A grandson of the Pioneer's was a Lieutenant in the 16th battalion in the Fenian Raid, and received his land grant as a veteran in 1903, a privilege of which he did not live to make any use, as he died before making his location. His sons and daughters - of whom he had eight in all - married into South Marysburgh families, only one of whom removed from the township, to wit, Sarah A. , who finally settled in Rochester, N.Y. Their descendants are to found chiefly in Prince Edward County.

"James Ackerman, second son and third child of the pioneer, was twice married, and had in all eleven children. His eldest son and child, Thaddeus Ackerman, has lived for many years in the city of Toronto, and is a trusted employee of the Canada Foundry Company."

PEARSALL, Leland Fred

Born May 23, 1921, "100 years", passed away April 7, 2022 at the Prince Edward County Memorial Hospital.

Meeting his goal of 100 yrs was one of the best days of his life. He was a 5th generation farmer on the family farm working hard and enjoyed a long, full and very healthy life. He had the enjoyment of many friendships and married to the love of his life and business partner, Barbara, for 76.5 yrs. He always said that he lived at the best of times to see so many changes like walking behind a plough all day to prepare a field, to the big tractors of today sowing his fields in a day. He became very fit and strong, laughing about those thinking they could arm wrestle this young skinny guy and underestimating his strength. He milked cows, then moved to beef cattle and finally was a Drover with Ross Mangan, a cattle buyer. "I've been in most barns in this County". He had so many stories and they always ended with how he treated people honestly. Honesty was a strong value that he held high and always lived by. He loved helping people and supported farmers to get their herd going or sitting with farmers to help and teach them how to buy good cattle for reasonable prices at the sales barns. A fellow farmer with a loaded truck and a flat tire prompted Leland to stop and load the man's cow onto his truck and took her to the sales barn allowing the man to fix his tire and still get to see his cow sold.

Dancing was a great joy for both parents and he was dancing on his 95th birthday and doing the old fashioned waltz like a pro. He had his trade mark quick sense of humour. He was still making us all laugh right up until the day before he went to hospital. He believed that you add 7 minutes to your life with every laugh you have. Leland had the distinction of being a lifetime donor to the Picton Blood Donor Clinic and a Life member of the Picton Elks Lodge.

He is predeceased by his parents Rodman "Earl" Pearsall and Eva Viola Sullivan and his daughter Evva "Roanne" Therrien, and his sister Reta Brummell and brother-in-law Marshall Brummell. Leland will be sadly missed by daughter Rilla Rhodes (Leith), son-in-law Jack Therrien, grandsons Dustin Therrien (Crystal) and Derek Therrien. Remembered by his great grandchildren as GG pop to Arlo, Deacon, and Raya Therrien.
