Reverend Joseph Antisell Allen was born at Arbourhill County Tipperary Ireland in about 1814. He was the son of Henry Allen and Eliza Antisell. He did not complete his course and moved to London where he lived for 5 years and did much literary work especially for Baxter Publishing house, for whom he bought out a Concordance to the New Testament. He declined an appointment in Tinnevelly College, India, he came to Canada in 1842 and was ordained by the late Bishop Mountain of Quebec. He married Catherine Ann Grant in 1843, the only daughter of Charles William Grant, 5th Baron de Longueuil and Caroline Coffin. He removed to U.C. living for some years at Ardath, Wolfe Island where he took charge for no remuneration of Trinity Church, built by the Baroness of Longueuil. He gave up Church work in 1861 and took his family to New Haven Connecticut. Subsequently he returned to Canada. He had several works published including: Day Dreams of a Butterfly (1854), Orangeism, Catholicism and Sir Francis Hincks (1877), the true and romantic love story of Col and Mrs Hutchinson (1884),
