Generation One

1. David Barker #132511, b. c. 16 July 1730/1732 in Dartmouth, Bristol County, Massachusetts,^{1,2} occupation³ religion Society of Friends/Quaker, d. 07 January 1821 in Barker's Point/Thompson's Point, Prince Edward County?, Ontario,¹ buried in Hay Bay Quaker Cemetery, Lennox and Addington, Ontario.²

Arrived with Major Vanalstine's party in 1784. Family of twelve children, only eight settled in Canada. Later research suggests that David and Lydia did NOT arrive with Van Alstine, but in 1790

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; BARKER Family; (pages 149 - 154)

"The Barkers are among the very few pioneer families who have regularly recorded traces of their ancestry. The authentic inscriptions of the family bible of the Barker family have been greatly augmented by the researches of the late Mr. John Barker, of Picton, who traces their source on this continent to a tradition now commonly held by the Barkers in the States, to the effect that, three Barker brothers came over from England in the "Cabbage Stump" during the Commonwealth, for they bore conspicuous parts in the cause of the Royalist during the reign of King Charles.

"One of the three settled in Rhode Island. The other two set out on an expedition to the northward. Sailing from Plymouth, Mass., they coasted until they struck the North River, near Cape Cod. Proceeding up the river until they found a suitable site for a trading post, they founded the present town of Pembroke.

"The people of Pembroke claim to possess the oldest existing dwelling house in the United States. It was built by the Barkers, and still stands in its primitive state. It was built of stone, laid in clay mortar; its only apartment id fifteen feet square. Its purposes were as much for those of defence as of trade; loopholes were ranged at equal intervals in the walls.

"Two of the brothers returned to hold office at the Court; the remaining brothers settled in Saratoga County; and one of his descendants, David Barker, reared a family of twelve children. He owned a fine farm which was confiscated during the Revolutionary War, because he sold cattle to the British; and when peace was declared, he joined Major VanAlstine's party in New York, and came to Canada, arriving in Adolphustown in 1784

"David Barker settled at Barker's Point, now Thomson's, where he died in 1821, aged eighty-eight years. His wife was Lydia Shove; she died in 1804, aged sixty-four years. They had a family of twelve children, only eight of whom, however, settled in Canada. These were Edward, Phoebe, James, Elizabeth, Sarah, Rebecca, Abraham and Lydia.

"The old father shortly before his death inscribed in the Family Bible that:

"it be remembered that I make this Bible a present to my grandson, David Barker, son of Edward Barker; and it is my desire that it may be kept in the family, to descend down to the name of David."

"He was not a Quaker, although he always attended Meeting. He and his family wore the plain dress and adopted Quaker customs; but he held strongly to the creed of the Church of England; and is was because of his influence that the members of the family of Abraham, his son, were baptized as soon as an Anglican clergyman came to Hallowell.

It is difficult to trace the movements and descendants of many of the eight children of David Barker. Abraham returned to Saratoga to be educated; but he returned and settled in Prince Edward County. A deed signed by Abraham Barker, in 1805, is still in the hands of his descendants in Picton. It conveys the two hundred acres which comprised Lot 1, and included what is now the site of a large part of the town of Picton. Abraham Barker bought the lot from Conrad VanDusen for one hundred and seventy-five pounds.

"Abraham Barker, with his brother James, erected a grist mill at Wellington, where they began grinding wheat in January 1815. He always kept in touch with his American cousins. Almost every other year he went by carriage and water to New York, his journey taking at least two months. On one occasion he took with him his eldest daughter to introduce her to the American branches of his family.

"Abraham Barker's son David was appointed Post Master of Picton in 1848 by the Marquess of Clanricarde. He held the appointment until the time of his death in 1872. His successor was Mt. Thomas Shannon, who was the predecessor of the present holder of the office, Mr. William Pettit. David Barker displayed much interest in military matters, and from Ensign in the Prince Edward County Militia, he rose to the rank of Captain.

"David J. Barker, son of David Barker, and great grandson of the Pioneer is proprietor of the Picton Foundry, one of the leading industrial enterprises of Prince Edward County. He was educated at Upper Canada College and married, Rose, daughter of the late Judge Robert P. Jellett who was appointed Judge of the County Court of Prince Edward in 1873. Judge Jellett's father was Morgan Jellett who came from Belfast to Canada when his son was but five years of age and settled in Port Hope in 1832. Here Mr. Jellett followed mercantile pursuits and became Clerk of the old Court of Commissions; subsequently he removed to Cobourg and became clerk of the County Council of the united counties of Northumberland and Durham, a position which he held until his death. In passing it may be noted that he was the grandson of Morgan Jellett, Esq., a magistrate of the County Down, Ireland.

"The Baker family possesses a clock 175 years old, which was built in Scotland and has been handed down from the old pioneer Barker to the present day descendants. Another family treasure is an old cabinet containing many secret drawers, which is prized very highly and is indeed a most interesting and valuable heirloom.

"James Baker, a son of David the Pioneer, and who joined Abraham in the milling enterprise at Wellington, named the present village of Bloomfield, where he settled and made his home until his death in 1847. He married Mary Leavens."

"Samuel R. Brooks, of Northport, is one of the leading farmers of Sophiasburg. He emigrated from Bennington, Vermont, just previous to the breaking out of the rebellion of 1837, and settled on Lot 2, Marsh Front of Sophiasburg, which he still owns. At that day it was a comparatively worthless forest - now it is a magnificent stretch of beautiful fields of waving grain and prolific and healthy fruit orchards, dotted with the finest buildings. Mr. Brooks has retired from the farm, and now resides in the village of Northport.

"He was married in 1840, being then twenty years of age, to Rebecca D. Solmes, daughter of Richard Solmes, of Sophiasburg. The Solmes family were U.E. Loyalists; among the earliest settlers in the township, and there and ever since among the most influential and highly respected citizens in the community.

"The fruit of this marriage was two sons, both of whom are married and now occupy high positions in the esteem of their acquaintances and in the social relations of the neighbourhood in which they reside."

Note that the surname frequently appears as "CURRY" in local records. The "CURRIE" spelling has been adopted for all members of this family within these genealogies 1861: Family lived in Picton, Prince Edward County, Ontario. The older daughters I believe are from an earlier marriage... still to be proven!

Extracted from "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte":

"Prominent among the descendants is George CURRIE, Police Magistrate, the well-known citizen of Picton, who has made his way in life by his own ability, and has won a substantial success. Reared on his father's farm, he took part in the pioneering work and arduous toil inseparable from the bush, and his first education was obtained at the country school near at hand, conducted by an old-time Irish schoolmaster. He finished by taking a course in the Picton Grammar School during two or three winters, and, in summers, working as usual at home. At the age of sixteen he entered into an apprenticeship with the business house of David B. STEVENSON, of Picton, which, at that time, was the largest general store in the county. Here he served four years, performing the multifarious duties peculiar to a business which combined a stock that supplied nearly every want, and, among the other duties allotted to him, were those of looking after Mr. STEVENSON's office in connection with his position as Chief Magistrate, and acting as his legal clerk when occasion required. At the end of his apprenticeship, he decided to enter upon business for himself, and his first undertaking was in the way of a foundry in Picton, which he conducted successfully for five years, and in which he was noted for the manufacture of the agricultural implements of that period.

"He next embarked in the business of dry goods and general merchandise, at which he continued with unbroken success for twenty years.

"He then established a ship yard, and carried this on for several years with the same success as his former business. During this time, he was always prominently in the forefront as a citizen interested in the welfare of the town and country, and represented the county at one time or another in every office, from councillor to reeve, as well as being warden for one term.

"For the past eighteen years, Mr. Currie has retired from all active business; but during that period he has held the high and responsible position of Police Magistrate for Picton, which office he still occupies and adorns."

The Annual Monitor for 1896, Quaker Published Memorials

"John T. Dorland was the son of John T. and Mary Ann Dorland, elders of West Lake Monthly Meeting, Canada. He was born in the village of Wellington, Ontario, on the 8th of the Third month, 1860. The youngest child of a family of seven, some of whom were grown up at the time of his birth, from his infancy he awakened a deep interest in those about him, and at an early age the impression was made upon his mother's heart that the Lord would call this one of her children to engage in His service as a Minister of the Gospel. The loving care of three grown-up sisters in his father's home had much to do with the moulding of his character, and his childhood became a time of seed-sowing that in after years brought forth an abundant increase.

"Amidst the beautiful surroundings and quiet of his native village, which is pleasantly situated upon the shores of Lake Ontario, he grew from childhood to youth, having at one time a strong desire to follow a literary career, but subsequently determining to engage in the study of law. Neither of these professions, however, were to be his life work. At a very tender age he manifested a deep interest in the Bible, and in the First-day school which he attended as a little child he was able, apparently with but little effort, to remember and repeat long passages of Scripture. But notwithstanding his many natural gifts, and the fact of his careful home training, he was soon made conscious of the need of having his heart opened to the Saviour's love., There were times when he felt he must surrender to these visitations of Divine love, and when he was under deep conviction; but unwillingness to trust fully, and a fear that if he were converted he would have to go abroad as a missionary, prevented his finding the rest and peace that come from God when the life is given up in whole-hearted surrender to Him. So the years passed until he was seventeen years of age, when the death of a beloved friend, his brother-in-law, Seburn Dorland, made a lasting impression upon him. This faithful servant of his Lord had come from the United States, hoping that the lake air would benefit his health; and his beautiful life and loving ministry were often afterwards spoken of by John Dorland as amongst the great blessings of his life. By the side of his open grave the silent prayer went up that his life might become such as his brother-in-law's had been - a prayer that has now had its gracious answer and remarkable fulfilment in the completed course of his own life, so full of the Divine blessing.

"Although these solemn calls and seasons of deep conviction had their marked influence, months passed before the light broke in and made John Dorland a new man in Christ Jesus. The desire to fit himself for the profession of his choice, the strong claims of his natural ambition to excel, and the day dreams of his boyhood, all had to be surrendered. There was before him no middle course. Christ must have all. Terrible though the ordeal seemed to all the pride of his buoyant young manhood, and sore the grief he felt to cause disappointment to some he loved, who shared the desire that he might follow the profession of his choice (in which doubtless he would have gained distinction), when the power of Divine grace brought the issues clearly home to his heart, his choice was made with a childlike trust, a singular steadfastness of purpose, and a single-hearted desire to be and to do all that God required of him. Humbly yielding to the divine will there came at once to his life much of the joyous and attractive power of grace, that made him such an honoured witness for his Lord. The work of his testimony began at once, and at Pickering College he was the means of influencing many of the students to become Christians, and "where," writes one of his friends of his boyhood, "he was admired by them for his straight-forward, upright Christian life."

"After leaving college John T. Dorland engaged in teaching for a time, but was soon called upon to relinquish this, as well as preparation for his chosen profession, and to go forth in the service of the Gospel. Great blessing attended even the very first of these journeys, and many conversations resulted. In the first neighbourhood visited, a meeting house where there had been no regular meeting was re-opened, and some time afterwards two further meetings were started in the same district. As the year 1881 was growing to a close, at the age of twenty-one, his gift to the ministry was acknowledged by his Monthly Meeting, and on the 18th of First month, 1882, he became a recorded minister.

"At this time an important change in his life took place. This was his marriage, on the 29th of Twelfth month, 1881, to Lavinia Hubbs, the daughter of William S. and Margaret Hubbs, of Bloomfield. Shortly before this John Dorland had accepted a business engagement with Elias Rogers, a Friend of Toronto, and in the newly -established meeting in that city, his ministry was continued and much blessed towards the building up and strengthening of the work that had been begun after the visit to Canada of Walter Morris. After residing for about a year in Toronto, John T. and Lavinia Dorland, with their infant daughter Margaret, removed to Brooklyn, U.S., which became their home for a couple of years. Here his time was fully taken up with his Gospel labours and visits to other Yearly Meetings, including his own in Canada. Visiting this in 1883 he met Isaac Sharp, Alfred Wright and other friends who were present from other Yearly Meetings. Already his character was distinguished by the exercise in large measure of the gracious influence of a controlled and spirit-filled life, which was the more manifest amidst the somewhat disturbed conditions that then existed in Canada; and already he had also begun to feel the burden of service for other lands. At this time an intimation came to him through one of the Friends attending the Yearly Meeting, of service that would be required of him over the sea, in which service he has since laid down his life.

"After leaving Brooklyn, where he had resided for a considerable time, he removed to Cleveland, Ohio, and found there, as elsewhere, that the work to which he was called fully occupied his time. Many were gathered to Christ through his faithful ministry, before the time came when it was made clear to him that he must visit England. Having obtained a minute for service here, he arrived in this country in time to attend in succession the Yearly Meetings of Dublin and London in the year 1888.

"For a couple of years John Dorland's family continued to reside in Wellington, Canada while he pursued his labours, visiting meetings, adult schools &c., throughout this country. A deepened interest in our own meetings, especially amongst our younger members, was the result of this labour that became apparent almost everywhere. To many also his ministry was a call to surrender to Christ, while to others it was an awakening to a more consecrated service. In the year 1889 his wife joined him for a short time in these labours, and he returned with her on a visit to his family in Canada.

"During this visit he attended Canada Yearly Meeting, in which he was appointed Clerk. Returning to England, he continued his labours under his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting, until early in the year 1890, when a trip he had long desired to make to the East was undertaken in company with J. Allen Baker. The journey extended to Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Constantinople and Athens, occupying several months, and proving one of the deepest interest to John Dorland. Not long after his return, he felt it right to remove his family from Canada to England, and for this purpose he again visited Canada at its next Yearly Meeting, which proved to be a larger meeting than had gathered for some years. It was no small trial for John Dorland to leave his aged parents and his home on this occasion, and it proved the last time he was to see the face of his father, as his decease had taken place before John Dorland's next return to Canada. But his call to England being clear, it was ever and added comfort to him in the prosecution of his work to know how freely and fully his parents had given him up for it, and how prayerfully they followed him in it.

"In a letter from Wellington, just before he sailed with his family, he wrote - "They want me to come to Cleveland, but I can see nothing but England!... This is home, and only His call could take me from it. My dear parents are so sweet about our going... For all I dread to leave, there is such a joy in the prospect of taking up my work in England. I trust God is preparing me for it in a larger measure also. Oh for His power in saving and sanctifying."

"It was the autumn of the year 1890 that John Dorland brought his family to England, settling at "Densbrook", Willesden Junction, London, which continued to be his permanent home until the time of his decease. The range of his work was now extended, taking in a largely increased number of engagements in connection with adult schools and mission centres, while at the same time continuing the specific work for which he had obtained his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting. When he had fully completed what he felt to be required of him under this minute, for a couple of years he employed part of his time under a business engagement with Joseph Baker & Sons of London. This work was not allowed to interfere with his continuing his gospel labours, for which he was free to absent himself at any time; and series of meetings, conventions, addresses, etc., continued to largely occupy him. It was under this engagement that he went to Chicago in the year 1893, remaining for several months during the time of the Exhibition. While thus engaged in business, he there found acceptable service with the Chicago Friends' Meeting, as expressed by a very cordial minute of that Meeting. During this visit to America he also had the opportunity of visiting New York Yearly Meeting.

"Upon returning from England his whole time was again devoted to religious and philanthropic work. When the Friends' First-day School Association was re-organized, and it became necessary to have a Secretary able to devote considerable time to the work, attending Annual Meetings, Conferences, etc., John T. Dorland accepted this post. During the last year and a quarter of his life he was also Editor of "One and All," the magazine of the Association, being also a frequent contributor to the "Friend," and for a considerable time responsible for the issue of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union Monthly Circular; and being actively engaged in promoting the establishment of branches and strengthening the work of that Union, his time was very closely occupied, and much of it necessarily spent away from home.

"In every department his work was characterized by forcible clearness, sound judgement, and rich spiritual power; and his life in a remarkable manner exemplified the effective influence of the large-hearted Christian, faithful to his convictions as a thorough Friend. He felt that we could put no limitations upon the work and operation of the Holy Spirit, and "magnified his office," or, as expressed in the revised version, like Paul, he "glorified his ministry."

"About seven months before his death he took an extended journey to the East on religious service, in company with his wife and Lucy E. and Mary E. Mouncey. This trip but deepened his interest in Egypt, Palestine, and the countries he had visited before, and his sympathies were greatly increased and feelings aroused on behalf of the Armenians. Many interesting addresses were given by him on the Eastern lands.

"Few who ever came in contact with John Dorland but were impressed with his only too rare combination of profound earnestness with a bright, joyous, and hopeful Christian character. The news of his death after a few days' illness, passed as a great shock, not only throughout this country, but wherever he had been known.

"John T. Dorland left a widow and four children - two sons and two daughters - one of the latter being born in England. In the Eighth month last Lavinia H. Dorland and her family returned to Wellington, Ontario, Canada.

"It was from attendance at the last and most encouraging Annual Meeting of the Friends' First-day School Association, held at Bristol, that John T. Dorland returned to London with a slight cold; and attending the Quarterly Meeting at Devonshire House, took a further chill. Seeming to be partially recovered he proceeded to Manchester to attend some meetings of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union and the Byrom Street Adult School. Although more ill than he appeared, he felt that he must attend the first of these - the F.C.F.U. Meeting, into which the whole of his concern seemed to centre. The meeting was a time of very manifest blessing and outpouring of the Holy Spirit. John Dorland spoke with great power, faithfully delivering the message committed to him; and the address given in that last meeting will long be remembered by many besides those who were privileged to be present. Within an hour after its conclusion he was prostrated in much pain and suffering of the late William Brockbank, "Brockhurst," Didsbury, near Manchester, and was never able to rise again. He was joined by his wife, and a day or two later by J. Allen Baker, from London. The most skilful physicians and trained nurses were in attendance night and day, and every possible means that generous hospitality and tender solicitude could provide were freely employed to save his life, but all in vain. One week from the time of his last meeting, as the sun of a new day was breaking in through the trees in front of the mansion where he lay, he peacefully passed to his eternal rest. His wish, expressed some years before, that he might die in harness was granted; and in the hours of consciousness his expressions of peace and joy in the prospect of being with his Lord were very precious to those who heard them. No dying words were needed to witness the reality and blessedness of a spirit-filled life such as his; and the self-denial and singular devotion which characterised its entire course will long remain a monument and testimony to the praise of Him who has now called His faithful servant from the service of earth to the higher service of Heaven."
