Nine Partners Meeting Digest suggest a marriage in October 1796 .

"Genealogical List of the Bull Family of the County of Prince Edward, Ontario", Dr. A.C. Bowerman, 1904."

"The family resided in Dutchess County, New York, not far from the present city of Poughkeepsie, and close to the Hudson river. During the War of Independence two brothers were taken prisoners and sent to the city of New York, unknown to the rest of the family. The treatment of Quaker non-combatants in New England was not less severe than that meted out to their co-religionists in Pennsylvania, as one of the Bull brothers died from violence and privation, while the other survived only long enough to be rescued by his relations, and died soon after .

"Josiah Bull died in Dutchess County, New York. His daughter Maturah came in 1792; Matilda in 1793, Ruth, 1802; while his widow Mary and the three children by second marriage, came in 1817. They (the latter) were brought by William and Ruth Christy, in a covered lumber waggon. William had gone down to attend the yearly meeting (Society of Friends, J.B.), no doubt prepared to bring back with him his sister Mary and her children. It will be seen that William and Mary Christy married father and daughter. On the return journey they reached the house of Cory Spencer (Picton) where they had a mid-day dinner, thence proceeding to the bush farm of William Christy, about seven miles west. In 1886 "Aunt Lizzie Wallace (see Spencers) said she was a school-girl when the Christys and Bulls came in 1817; and that when she came home for dinner from the school-house, which stood on a hill overlooking the Bay, behind the residence of Mr. H.S. Wilcocks (1901), she found the arrivals at dinner at her father's. It is not known when the other members of the Bull family came; but there is no doubt that they came about 1802, as John was married in Adolphustown in 1803 (according to the McDowall Register)."

He married (1) Mehitabel Thomas #117530, b. 01 October 1747 in New York State?, d. 1794 in Beekman, Dutchess County, New York, religion Society of Friends/Quaker.

He married Elizabeth Powell #169540.

Elizabeth:

Elizabeth was a descendant of Anneka Jans, who was a step-daughter of Westervett WEBBER and a natural sister of William III of England.. She was Elizabeth's maternal grandmother.

There was supposedly and unsubstantiated story about a large inheritance waiting to be claimed by her descendants, but this is a myth.

Anneke WEBBER, born 1805 in Norway, married Roloeff JANS in Amsterdam in 1623. The couple had six children, The family were among the first settlers of the Dutch West India Company that arrived in what is now New York in 1630. Roeloff died shortly thereafter, and Anneka married Everardus BOGARDUS, a minister of the Dutch Church of New Amsterdam. The couple had four sons, and Edwardus died at sea in 1647..

Anneke died at Beverwyck, New York in 1663, leaving her property to be divided amongst her eight children., land which included 62 morgans (about 120 acres) on Manhattan Island. That property was confiscated in 17905, and granted to Trinity Church.

The next 150 years saw a number of legal battles by Jans' descendants in an unsuccessful attempts to reclaim the land from the church.

"A History of the Society of Friends (Quakers) in Canada"

by Arthur Garratt Dorland, Ph.D., Professor of History in the University of Western Ontario, 1927

"Corey Spencer, a prominent Friend of West Lake Monthly Meeting, and one of the pioneers of Hallowell Township (Prince Edward County), had his teams requisitioned in 1813 to carry military supplies to Kingston, to Myers Creek (now Belleville), to York, and to other points. Dragoons and their horses were billeted with him, sometimes for a month at a time. In some cases he was given certificates for these "services", thereby entitling him to payment later from the Government. But these he consistently refused to accept. When he likewise refused to pay the special tax levied upon Quakers in lieu of military service, his goods were seized under distraint and sold. A memorandum exists of the sale of seven barrels of flour and of four bushels of wheat which were disposed of at public auction in order to raise the amount of the fine. The money from the sale, together with the costs of the legal action amounted to $60.00, which was, more than the original fine which Corey Spencer had refused to pay."

"Maturah married first to Thomas Bowerman, who brought her to Canada in 1792, and leaving the farm on the West Lake shore, known as the Tubb's farm, they settled on Lot 1, First Concession Military Tract, Hallowell Township. Their first house was of logs, and stood near the low ground where they grew their flax for spinning. Before many years, however, they built a large square two-storey frame house, which was painted white, and was for those days, both commodious and palatial. Thomas died in 1810 at Kingston, en route from Quebec, with "ship fever" and was brought home for burial. Maturah married 2nd) John Stinson."

Stephen:

1829: Noted in West Lake (Conservative) Quaker Meeting Registers. (Note that the children's names here are the same as children ascribed to Cornelius BLOUNT and Phoebe BARKER.... coincidence?)

Disowned JUL 1845.

Was one of the first seine fishermen on the Wellington Beach, and partnered with Justice FOX of Pulaski, New York who brought the first seine used in this fishery. FOX visited regularly for the September run of whitefish. The second seine, longer than the Fox-Blount seine, was owned by Samuel Cole; it was 80 rods in length, and was in operation from 1826 to 1828 and later. This type of seine fishing was a leading factor in the destruction of the valuable whitefish industry in Lake Ontario,

James Johnson of Athol partnered with Samuel Cole, and operated a curing ground on the Sandbanks for salting and barreling whitefish for the Rochester market.

Lived in Hallowell Township until about 1848, then moved west to Whitby, then to Wisconsin, United States of America.

Extract from "Descendants of Josiah Bull Jr. (1738 to 183) of Dutchess County, N.Y."
compiled by Mary Lynch Young

"There is quite a tale to tell about the large family of George and Phoebe. Seven of their ten children were already married when the family decided to leave Canada. Their eldest daughter, Delinda, was carrying her seventh child, and she and her husband decided not to accompany the rest. Son Amos was living in Michigan with his wife and child but later joined the family, once they were all settled. The two youngest daughters and youngest son, all single, were still at home with the parents.

"Early in the fall of 1869, five of their married children, two unmarried daughters and the unmarried youngest son, along with two of their neighbours, also single men, formed a wagon train of nine wagons, only one of which was pulled by horses - the remaining eight wagons were pulled by oxen. The parents were in one wagon; Stephen and his wife and five small children in one; Charles and four motherless children in one; Peter and wife and two children in theirs; daughter Martha and husband Rufus Burritt and four children in theirs; their recently widowed daughter, Elizabeth, drove her own wagon (while her two young sisters, Sophronia and Roxa, probably cared for her small son and daughter); Burton, the unmarried son, drove his; their young neighbour, Joe Carwell, drove his, and young William Jarmin drove the ninth wagon. The Burritts had the only horse-drawn wagon. (Two of their children did not go with them, Delinda Bull married Zachariah Doran and stayed in Ontario. Amos Nance Bull married Catherine Belles and settled in Kansas.)

"In all they were a party of 33 people. What a sight that must have been, nine covered wagons travelling fifteen miles from Meaford, on the Georgian Bay, to Owen Sound! As I understand it, the wagons and animals had to come by ferry.

The following letter describes the Bull's (sic) trip to the "States" is written by George and Phoebe's daughter, Sophronia, who was about 21 years old when she left Canada with her parents."

"I expect the old log house is gone and a modern structure in its place by now. Our house was on the Highway, 9 miles west of Meaford and 11 miles east of Owen Sound. I sure remember how it looked when we left there and started for the States (as everyone called it then).

"We went to Port Sarnia then went by boat up Lake Huron, through the straits and down Lake Michigan. We got on the boat at night and were on 3 days and 4 nights. It was a very rough trip. I was so sea sick I did not sit up to eat a single meal.

"Wish I could see you. Then I could tell you so much more about so many things that happened on that trek from Canada to the settlement in Canada Precinct in Nebraska."

"The party disembarked at Chicago, and formed their wagon train again, heading for Iowa. The wagon party had left Meaford in October of 1869, arriving in Linn County, Iowa, near Cedar Rapids on the 6th of November, when Martha gave birth to her fifth child in the covered wagon. The group stayed in Linn County until 1871.

"They found the free land gone in Iowa and in 1871 decided to go farther west, to Nebraska, where homesteads were being taken up. They stopped in Polk County, about ten miles south of the Platt River, and filed claims in what was to become known as "Canada Township", near where the town of Shelby later was settled. The railroad had yet to be built there.

"Actually, they were close to the Blue River, from which they hauled water in barrels for their household use and where they herded their horses and cattle to drink. Once a week they would take their washing to the Blue River. It wasn't until that fall they were able to start digging a well.

"A well drilling "outfit" was secured at Lincoln by George Bull to dig a well on his homestead. They were concerned when they were not able to find water at forty feet, but still kept drilling until water was finally reached at 112 feet! They were all so worried that they had suspended their plowing of the prairie sod to see if water could be reached at all. If not, they felt they would be unable to stay there. The water they did find was pure, and cold, and was in endless supply, so that everyone was happy and went back to plowing. The table land of Nebraska was certainly different from soil in Grey County, Ontario, at the edge of the Canadian woods.

"Charles H. Bull, son of George and Phoebe, made the trip to Linn County, Iowa with his four motherless children, Youngs A., Sarah E., Amos, and Abe. Charles' wife, Catherine McDonald, had died shortly before the Bull family left for Iowa in the fall of 1869. Charles married again in 1880 to Lavina Dunning Wait and they had two children, Garfield A., and Lillian Mary Bull.

"Charles had a number of setbacks before deciding to leave Nebraska for California in 1891. In 1874 there was a grasshopper plague which destroyed the crops; in the winter of 1880/81 there was a terrible blizzard which killed most of the cattle; in 1890 there was a severe depression followed by a drought."

"Genealogical List of the Bull Family of the County of Prince Edward, Ontario", Dr. A.C. Bowerman, 1904."

"The family of Stephen moved to Battle Creek, Michigan. They were married at the "Big White House" on the same day (Friday, 18th September, 1818) on which were married William GARRETT (brother of Phoebe) and Patience Bull, and Townsend Garrett and Sally Bowerman. That was an occasion not to be overlooked; it was an early "triple-alliance," and demanded ratification by the assembled neighbourhood, in the collective capacity of an old-times charivari. That event was authentically stated by "the oldest inhabitant" never to have been surpassed for the extravagant invention of furious fun and frolic. The vestibule Pullmans in which the newly contracted parties began their wedding tours consisted of heavy farm waggons without springs, and furnished with large waggon chairs.

When these had been taken apart and replaced in proper shape upon the ground - for the charivaring party had placed them astride the barn roof - they were free to pursue their journey over the corduroy roads leading to their various residences near Wellington, then the township of Ameliasburg. "

"Genealogical List of the Bull Family of the County of Prince Edward, Ontario", Dr. A.C. Bowerman, 1904."

"Thomas (called "Big Tommy"), who lived for the greater part of his life on the town line between Hallowell and Hillier, near a country church, which still bears the name of "Bowerman's Church." In keeping with the family proclivity for magnificent visions, Thomas offered to "give the land, grade the road, and furnish the ties" for a section of the Grand Trunk Railway to be built through Prince Edward. Though a great undertaking, it would have been a profitable investment, and showed greater speculative foresight than many of his followers".

Was one of the first seine fishermen on the Wellington Beach, and partnered with Justice FOX of Pulaski, New York who brought the first seine used in this fishery. FOX visited regularly for the September run of whitefish. The second seine, longer than the Fox-Blount seine, was owned by Samuel Cole; it was 80 rods in length, and was in operation from 1826 to 1828 and later. This type of seine fishing was a leading factor in the destruction of the valuable whitefish industry in Lake Ontario,

James Johnson of Athol partnered with Samuel Cole, and operated a curing ground on the Sandbanks for salting and barreling whitefish for the Rochester market.

Lived in Hallowell Township until about 1848, then moved west to Whitby, then to Wisconsin, United States of America.

" Abraham B. Saylor is at present manager of the Bloomfield branch of the Canadian Cannery Limited. He began business in Bloomfield by building a grain, woolen and saw mill, and also an evaporator. He lost his entire plant by fire, suffering the entire damage at a loss of $6,000, and soon after purchased the canning factory then owned by Cornelius White at Bloomfield. This concern was the first canning factory in Prince Edward County, and after many improvements by Mr. Saylor it was taken over by the Canadian Cannery, Limited. Mr. Saylor has served as postmaster at Bloomfield for more than twenty years, and for about the same period has held the position of clerk of the court."

"Mr. Brown was born on the Cronk farm, one mile from Bloomfield, August 29, 1848. His father was the late Stewart Brown, and his mother's maiden name was Katherine Corner.

"On May 18, 1865. Joseph J. Brown and Jemima White, daughter of Corne(lius) White, were married. They resided on the farm at Bloomfield, now owned by Fred Hubbs. Both were prominent members of the Society of Hicksite Friends.

"Mr. Brown was a Conservative in politics. He took an active part in municipal affairs and in 1905 he was elected as reeve of Bloomfield.

"He was a member of the Masonic fraternity.

"Mr. Brown, in his younger days, farmed on a large scale. For twenty-five years he had a 500 acre farm on which he kept a herd of forty head of dairy cattle. He also raised hops when that produce was in demand.

"He acted as an agent for several years for the J.M. Thorburn Seed Company of New York.

"Along with W.H. Gough and H. Cooper, he was instrumental in having the first rock road constructed through H...mfield.

"Besides his wife, Mr. Brown is survived by three sons and one daughter: Don Brown of Bloomfield, with whom he outlived; Dr. Sherman Brown of Poughkeepsie, N.Y.; Dr. Sanger Brown of Albany, N.Y.; and Miss Ethel Brown of New York City.

"A sister, Miss Bertha Brown, lives in New York. Two brothers and a sister predeceased him - Dr. Sanger Brown of Chicago, Dr. Willet Brown of New York, and Mrs. Ida Leavens of Bloomfield.

"The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Harry Parry of Wellington conducting the service. Interment made in the Hicksite Cemetery. Pall bearers were his three sons, and grandson, Joe Brown, and Edward and Howard (Leav)ens and Fred Hubbs."
