1828: Death date appears on gravestone as 15 JUN 1828, but Gordon Smith suggests 15 MAR 1827. The West Lake (Conservative) Meeting of the Society of Friends shows his death in 1827.

15 MAY 1799:

"To the Monthly Meeting of Friends at Ninepartners... Robert Hubbs and his wife Jane being about to remove with their family to Upper Canada within the Compass of your meeting... we recommend them with their Children namely, Benjamin, Robert, Mary, Jemima , Haviland (sic), Adam and Amos - they being young to your Christian Care... Signed in and on behalf of our Monthly Meeting held at Westbury the 15 of 5 month 1799..."

From the "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904":

"The pioneer of the family in Prince Edward County was Robert Hubbs. He was a Friend and an United Empire Loyalist who came from Long Island in 1797. The original deed of his property is still in the possession of his great-grandson, Richard H. Hubbs, barrister, Picton.

"When Robert Hubbs landed on December 27, 1797, in that little cove in Picton Bay, by which the True Blue Orphanage has since been built, he was accompanied by his wife and eight children: the youngest, Amos, being an infant at the time. His wife was Jane Haviland, a member of the family from whom has since descended the well-known Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia. Haviland, like Robert and Benjamin, is found as a family name in the genealogy of the Hubbs family. In a very old Bible, now in the possession of Mrs. David B. Bowerman, it is recorded that Jane Haviland had a brother Benjamin, and that the Havilands were of Dutch origin. About the time that the Hubbs came to Canada, a John Haviland received a grant of land in Cramahe, which he afterwards sold to the pioneer, Hubbs. When our pioneer left the States, he travelled by what has since come to be known as the overland route; but as land alongside the river banks and bay shores had been previously settled by the disbanded military, he had to make his way further West than most of the pioneers of his day. Eventually reaching the head of Picton Bay, his first act on landing from his batteau was to cut down a tree for a canoe. It was round the spot where hewed the tree that he decided to clear and make his homestead. That clearing has since attained local interest. Soon a log cabin, snugly nestled in the silence of the water-girt forest; it was replaced in time by a red frame house which Amos Hubbs disposed of to the Hill family, who sold it to the Hon. James McQuaig, M.P.; and from his proprietorship, it passed into the ownership of the True Blue Orphanage Society.

"The demands of increasing communication and the needs of military occupation led to the construction of the Danforth Road, leading from the Stone Mills at Glenora to the Murray Carrying Place, and passing by the old Hubbs place. Along this road the soldiers marched on their way to Toronto during the war of 1812; and many a brave heart enjoyed the genial hospitality of the old pioneer. His house was also a rendezvous point for the travelling ministers of the time; in 1799 his kindly welcome was particularly referred to by High Judge, a Friend preacher of note in the old days; and again in 1808 by Elias Hicks, the preacher founder of the Hicksites.

"Robert Hubbs was twice married before he migrated to Canada. His first wife's name is unknown, but she bore him one son, William Hubbs, who settled on the east half of lot thirteen in the first concession of Hillier, at what is now known as Hubbsville. This son married Phoebe Bull, a daughter of the old pioneer Josiah Bull, and had a daughter Matura who married Stephen Haight and settled in Norwich. William Hubbs eventually joined his daughter at Norwich.

"Robert Hubbs worked for Corey Spencer on the north High shore for a wage of flour, with which he returned, carrying it upon his back; and when pursuing his way from his log cabin to the Spencer homestead he had to walk round the head of the Bay, cross the swamp and pass through the wooded site of the present Glenwood Cemetery. As food was scarce the settlers depended largely on the fish they caught and the game they shot. Fishing was conducted as another of those makeshifts of necessity. Standing on a light raft, the fisher would use a two-pronged steel fork with which to spear the plentiful fish. Having impaled one he directed the raft shoreward, pushing the fish along the bottom until the beach was reached. The steel fork was the only one possessed by the Hubbs for many years. For harvesting purposes they used a crotched stick with two prongs; but the same steel fork was serviceable in other sporting enterprises and served as a weapon of attack and defence against the wolves.

"A friend of fine character and commanding presence, pioneer Robert Hubbs has left many descendants in the county of Prince Edward and the Bay of Quinte district, who invariably have been noted as big and solid men, blessed with strong minds and loyal Sentiments, imbued by much common sense, and regarded as useful and valuable members of the community."

Another source of Hubbs information for these genealogies was the research done by Gordon V. Smith of Smiths Falls in 1981. That document may be found at the Marilyn Adams Genealogy Research Centre (MAGRC) in Ameliasburgh, Prince Edward County.

"The first record of the Hubbs Family was written more than fifty years ago for "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte :, by my great uncle, Richard Henry Hubbs of Picton....

"In the 1930's a very thorough genealogy of the Benjamin Hubbs and Sarah Way branch was printed by Glenn C. Way, of Niagara Falls, N.Y. , as part of the Way family history. A few years ago, Mrs. Mary E. Young, of Santa Rosa, Calif., published a book about the William Hubbs and Phoebe Bull branch, and of their only child, Matura, who married Stephen Haight; and of their many descendants. Hubbs Creek, west of Wellington, is names after William, who had a Mill at "Hubbsville". Mary Young's book shows the line of Hubbs descent from Rev. Christopher Hawkhurst of Shrewsbury, England in 1558. A really tremendous work, and the result of a great deal of correspondence and travel. Several other members of the "Family" have contributed generously with needed information; notably Mrs. Ruth Law of Uxbridge, who has compiles a beautiful Genealogy of the Van Cleaf family.

Phoebe:

Did Phoebe have an illegitimate child in 1823?

(Adolphustown Women's Monthly Meeting Minutes (Quaker), 1808 - 1824)

According to research from Gordon Smith, Phoebe was possibly buried in the nearest Quaker Cemetery to Hubbsville, located on the old Montfort farm, 1 1/2 miles South-east of Rose Hall, east side of the road behind the barn, last building..

Smith's data also suggests that Phoebe's mother was Mehitabel THOMAS.

Charles:

1851: Census notes that Charles died of old age in 1851.

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, The Saylor Family; (pages 785 - 788)

"Records show that shortly before the War of 1812, Charles H. Saylor came to Prince Edward County from Dutchess County, N.Y., where he had been preceded by neighbours and friends. His family had long been settled in New England, and many of them remained in the States.

"Being a miller by occupation, Charles H. Saylor was exempt from military service, but he joined the militia and the interest he displayed brought him gradual promotion to the rank of major. He anticipated service during the Mackenzie Rebellion, and it was he who "warned" out the militia, taking the precaution to see that each man was armed. He was the first to bring muskets over from the Stone Mills to Picton, bringing five loads with which to insure a hot reception for any invaders. His eldest son, Adam, exhibits, with pardonable pride, the sword worn by his father in the service.

"Shortly after arriving in the county, Charles H. Saylor purchased land near Bloomfield; the old homestead, which, still in the possession of the family, stands, remodelled and improved, within view of the village. He possessed a marked degree the adaptability needed for a successful pioneer; not only did his training include the skill of the carpenter and joiner, but the knowledge of the miller and millwright as well; and it is said that he could cobble his own shoes! He was born in Springfield, N.J., 1776, and in 1812 he married Jemima, daughter of Robert Hubbs; she was born on Long Island in 1790, and died in 1876, having survived her husband twenty-three years.

"Three handsome residences within a stone's throw of each other in the village of Bloomfield are owned and occupied by the sons of the Pioneer: Adam H., Robert H., and Abraham B.

"Abraham B. Saylor is at present manager of the Bloomfield branch of the Canadian Cannery Limited. He began business in Bloomfield by building a grain, woollen and saw mill, and also an evaporator. He lost his entire plant by fire, suffering the entire damage at a loss of $6,000, and soon after he purchased the canning factory then owned by Cornelius White at Bloomfield. This concern was the first canning factory in Prince Edward County, and after many improvements by Mr. Saylor it was taken over by Canadian Cannery, Limited. Mr. Saylor has served as postmaster at Bloomfield for more than twenty years, and for about the same period has held the position of clerk of the court.

"Caleb B., son of the Pioneer, was a man of great personal activity and a good business man. During his residence in Sidney he took a leading part, and had the confidence and respect of the whole community. He was active in church as well as secular matters, holding the office of trustee, steward, etc., for many years, and was one of the promoters of the Grace Church in Trenton. He died in Trenton May 19th, 1898, aged seventy-three years.

"His son, Charles W. Saylor, was born in Prince Edward County April 20th, 1863, and educated at the old historical No. 2 school, Sidney. He spent his early days on the farm in 1880 his father, Caleb. B. Saylor, sold his farm on the Front of Sidney, and removed to Trenton, where he opened a general store and ran it successfully for about five years, when he retired from active business, being succeeded by Charles W. Saylor, who since then has more than quadrupled the stock, including groceries, crockery, house furnishings, furniture, etc., in a store 182 x 36 feet.

"Besides this, Mr. Saylor has one of the most attractive stores of the same kind in Frankford, where he carried a large stock of goods. The Saylor stores are popular throughout the district and Mr. Saylor is one of the leading merchants of Trenton and Frankford. He has been a member of the Trenton council for a number of years. He is independent in politics, but takes an intelligent and prominent part in public affairs."

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1905; Thomas BOG; (pages 176 - 180)

Lieutenant-Colonel Bog

"Thomas Joshua Pelton Bog has been prominently associated with the County of Prince Edward ever since he first came to Picton in 1842. He is the son of a Scottish Officer who held the rank of Captain in the British Royal Artillery, and was placed on half-pay after seeing active service, in Canada, during the War of 1812, and rewarded with a Crown grant of land near Perth, in Ontario. He died in 1832, while in Montreal, from an attack of the first cholera in Canada.

"The office of Deputy Registrar of the County becoming vacant in 1872, Col. Bog was offered the appointment, which he accepted and holds to this day. In the following year, on the death of the Registrar of that time, Mr. Bog assumed entire charge of the office until another Registrar should be appointed, which was not until 1876, when the appointment was accepted by Mr. MacKenzie, the present holder of the office.

"Col. Bog inherited from his father the keen interest he has always displayed in military matters. He may be regarded as the final authority upon the martial affairs of Prince Edward. The inception of the 16th or Prince Edward Battalion, was due to his patriotic efforts. As far back as 1862 he raised a small Company of Volunteers in Picton, which formed the nucleus of the present regiment. The command of the company was given to Mr. Bog. Further exertions on behalf of the Battalion in the following year brought him promotion to the rank of Major. Subsequently, Major Bog received his rank of Lieut.-Colonel, and was given command of the regiment, which he held for nine years.

"Colonel Bog wrote the historical account of the Battalion which was published in the "Canadian Military Gazette" in 1892. It was written in response to a suggestion that emanated from the authorities at Ottawa. The zeal which denoted all Col. Bog's associations with his Battalion, left him to be the first commanding officer in the Dominion to respond with a history.

During the Fenian Raid of 1865, a company of the 3rd Administrative Battalion was comprised of members drawn from each company of the Prince Edward Battalion. The Prince Edward men were under the command of Major Bog, as he then was. For two months they were stationed at Hemmingford, on the frontier. The inhabitants presented Major Bog, on the completion of his service among them, with an address, testifying to the good behaviour and exemplary conduct of his men.

"In the following year, during the second supposed Fenian Invasion of 1866, Major Bog again saw service, while stationed for a short time at Kingston.

"A more complete list of men eligible for the Fenian Medal was furnished for the 16th Battalion than for any other; through the private memoranda, he always made a point of accumulating, Colonel Bog was able to certify, to the just claims of many men who otherwise would have been deprived of their medals. The distribution did not take place until 1900, when it was made conjointly by the wife of the first O.C. of the Battalion, the wife of the O.C when on Fenian Service, and the daughter of the last O.C.

"When a boy of twelve years of age, residing at Prescott, Colonel Bog had An experience not vouchsafed to many. It was his pleasure in the excitement of boyhood, and his horror in youth's dread of carnage, at the same time to enjoy seeing and to recoil from the mingled scenes of a battle.

"In the middle of one dark November night, the townspeople of Prescott were awakened from their sleep, and brought from their houses, by the continuous ringing of alarm bells. A party of the adherents of William Lyon Mackenzie, or the rebels, as they were called in those days, had arrived by schooners and a steamer, and it was thought that they were about to land and attack the town. They numbered between two and three hundred, and had steamed down from Oswego in vessels which they had pressed into their service. It was evidently their first intention to land at Prescott, but they steered in so closely to the dock-side that they smashed a jolly-boat against the pier, and immediately sheared off, steaming upstream, their movements directed by an exiled Pole, called Von Shoultz. Probably he discovered that the predominating feeling in the town was not friendly, or he may have learned that there were some allies waiting further up the river. At Windmill Point. Von Shoultz found his friends already disembarked. They had come down from Ogdensburg in a passenger steamboat, called the "United States." After the rebels had all landed, the steamer and Schooners were sent back. When the "United State" was returning, the little gun-boat "Experiment" met, and fired on her. As the passenger boat had no guns on board she could not retaliate; but she manoeuvred to run down the impudent little craft, and accordingly, drove hard ahead at the "Experiment's" broadside. The little one, seeing the game, and enjoying the joke, pulled in under the lee of the shore, from where, secure in the shallows she opened an unpleasant fire on the "United States," now trying to save herself from running aground.

"The rebel forces proceeded to occupy the mill from which the Point derives its name. It was a substantial building, with walls five or six feet in thickness, and standing nearly eighty feet in height. The interior was divided into storeys, each lit by small windows, that served as loop-holes. Good outer defences were provided in the heavy stone fences that surrounded the mill. This choice formed a strongly fortified position, and although bombarded for a long while, no impression was made by the shots from the "Experiment."

"Colonel Plomer Young was Commandant at Prescott at the time. He had under him a company of the 83rd Regiment; a company of Royal Marines, under Lieut. Harper; the local County Volunteers, under Capt. H.D. Jessop and a company of Glengarry's under Captain George McDonald. The local Militia was under the command of Colonel Fraser.

"Fighting first took place on the morning of the 13th of November, 1838, and not 1837, as some historians have erroneously states. The troops surrounded the rebels in the mill. Sorties were made with casualties on both sides. Lieut. Johnson was killed, and his body was afterwards shamefully mutilated. Lieut. Harper was wounded in the left arm.

Reinforcements from Kingston arrived on Friday, under the command of Colonel Dundas; the whole of the 83rd Regiment came, bringing with them three 24-pounders. A plan for a general attack was formed; all the outhouses in the vicinity of the mill were fired, which had the effect of confining the rebels in the mill.

"With weakened numbers, and in cramped space, they had to resist the concentrated force of a combined bombardment and attack. The end soon became a matter of discretion. The rebels evacuated in an unconditional surrender.

"The leader, Von Shoultz, was found hiding a short distance away, in the hush. He was tried by court martial, and hanged at Kingston. About one hundred and ten men surrenders. It was computed at the time that nearly as many more deserted during the siege. Many men were wounded, and eleven men killed, bring buried in a trench beside the mill.

"As probably these were the most stirring scenes he witnessed in his younger days, the remembrance of them has been so clearly impressed on the mind of Colonel Bog, that to-day he can verify each statement as vividly as though the incident occurred but a few days past. He remembers seeing the standard captured from the rebels. It was a large silk flag, displaying a spread eagle, surmounted by a single star. Beneath the eagle, in letters beautifully woven in silken thread, it bore the inscription . "Liberated by the Onondago Hunters."

A patriotic song was composed by one of the volunteers for the occasion. It should be sung to the lilting tune of "The Girl I Left Behind Me." Although colonel Bog remembers its many stanza, one verse will serve here as a sample for the rest:

"We're the boys that fear no noise
When the cannon loud did roar;
We cut the rebels right and left
When they landed on the shore."

"Colonel Bog married Adelaide, daughter of Adam Hubbs, and had two sons, Edward A. and William A. The former, who was manager of the Standard Bank, of Picton, and is now assistant inspector of the Standard Bank, in Toronto, married Frances J. Vanstone, and has one child, Georgiana C. William A. Bog is accountant in the head office of the Bank of Montreal, and is unmarried.

"Colonel Bog, for twenty-three years, was secretary-treasurer of the Prince Edward County Agricultural Society, and for the same length of time he has been secretary and treasurer of the Picton High School Board. For twenty-eight years he has been director and treasurer of the Glenwood Cemetery Company, and for a great number of years he was church warden of the St. Mary Magdalene's Church (C. of E.) in Picton."

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904

"His son, Charles W. Saylor, was born in Prince Edward County April 20th, 1863, and educated at the old historical No. 2 school, Sidney. He spent his early days on the farm, but in 1880 his father, Caleb B. Saylor, sold his farm on the Front of Sidney, and removed to Trenton, where he opened a general store and ran it successfully for about five years, when he retired from active business, being succeeded by Charles W. Saylor, who since then has more than quadrupled the stock, including groceries, crockery, house furnishings, furniture, etc. in a store 128 x (illegible) feet,.

"Besides this, Mr. Saylor has one of the most attractive stocks of the same kind in Frankford, where he carries a large stock of goods. The Saylor stores are popular throughout the district and Mr. Saylor is one of the leading merchants of Trenton and Frankford. He has been a member of the Trenton council for a number of years. He is independent in politics, but takes an intelligent and prominent part in public affairs."

John:

The Annual Monitor for 1896, Quaker Published Memorials

"John T. Dorland was the son of John T. and Mary Ann Dorland, elders of West Lake Monthly Meeting, Canada. He was born in the village of Wellington, Ontario, on the 8th of the Third month, 1860. The youngest child of a family of seven, some of whom were grown up at the time of his birth, from his infancy he awakened a deep interest in those about him, and at an early age the impression was made upon his mother's heart that the Lord would call this one of her children to engage in His service as a Minister of the Gospel. The loving care of three grown-up sisters in his father's home had much to do with the moulding of his character, and his childhood became a time of seed-sowing that in after years brought forth an abundant increase.

"Amidst the beautiful surroundings and quiet of his native village, which is pleasantly situated upon the shores of Lake Ontario, he grew from childhood to youth, having at one time a strong desire to follow a literary career, but subsequently determining to engage in the study of law. Neither of these professions, however, were to be his life work. At a very tender age he manifested a deep interest in the Bible, and in the First-day school which he attended as a little child he was able, apparently with but little effort, to remember and repeat long passages of Scripture. But notwithstanding his many natural gifts, and the fact of his careful home training, he was soon made conscious of the need of having his heart opened to the Saviour's love., There were times when he felt he must surrender to these visitations of Divine love, and when he was under deep conviction; but unwillingness to trust fully, and a fear that if he were converted he would have to go abroad as a missionary, prevented his finding the rest and peace that come from God when the life is given up in whole-hearted surrender to Him. So the years passed until he was seventeen years of age, when the death of a beloved friend, his brother-in-law, Seburn Dorland, made a lasting impression upon him. This faithful servant of his Lord had come from the United States, hoping that the lake air would benefit his health; and his beautiful life and loving ministry were often afterwards spoken of by John Dorland as amongst the great blessings of his life. By the side of his open grave the silent prayer went up that his life might become such as his brother-in-law's had been - a prayer that has now had its gracious answer and remarkable fulfilment in the completed course of his own life, so full of the Divine blessing.

"Although these solemn calls and seasons of deep conviction had their marked influence, months passed before the light broke in and made John Dorland a new man in Christ Jesus. The desire to fit himself for the profession of his choice, the strong claims of his natural ambition to excel, and the day dreams of his boyhood, all had to be surrendered. There was before him no middle course. Christ must have all. Terrible though the ordeal seemed to all the pride of his buoyant young manhood, and sore the grief he felt to cause disappointment to some he loved, who shared the desire that he might follow the profession of his choice (in which doubtless he would have gained distinction), when the power of Divine grace brought the issues clearly home to his heart, his choice was made with a childlike trust, a singular steadfastness of purpose, and a single-hearted desire to be and to do all that God required of him. Humbly yielding to the divine will there came at once to his life much of the joyous and attractive power of grace, that made him such an honoured witness for his Lord. The work of his testimony began at once, and at Pickering College he was the means of influencing many of the students to become Christians, and "where," writes one of his friends of his boyhood, "he was admired by them for his straight-forward, upright Christian life."

"After leaving college John T. Dorland engaged in teaching for a time, but was soon called upon to relinquish this, as well as preparation for his chosen profession, and to go forth in the service of the Gospel. Great blessing attended even the very first of these journeys, and many conversations resulted. In the first neighbourhood visited, a meeting house where there had been no regular meeting was re-opened, and some time afterwards two further meetings were started in the same district. As the year 1881 was growing to a close, at the age of twenty-one, his gift to the ministry was acknowledged by his Monthly Meeting, and on the 18th of First month, 1882, he became a recorded minister.

"At this time an important change in his life took place. This was his marriage, on the 29th of Twelfth month, 1881, to Lavinia Hubbs, the daughter of William S. and Margaret Hubbs, of Bloomfield. Shortly before this John Dorland had accepted a business engagement with Elias Rogers, a Friend of Toronto, and in the newly -established meeting in that city, his ministry was continued and much blessed towards the building up and strengthening of the work that had been begun after the visit to Canada of Walter Morris. After residing for about a year in Toronto, John T. and Lavinia Dorland, with their infant daughter Margaret, removed to Brooklyn, U.S., which became their home for a couple of years. Here his time was fully taken up with his Gospel labours and visits to other Yearly Meetings, including his own in Canada. Visiting this in 1883 he met Isaac Sharp, Alfred Wright and other friends who were present from other Yearly Meetings. Already his character was distinguished by the exercise in large measure of the gracious influence of a controlled and spirit-filled life, which was the more manifest amidst the somewhat disturbed conditions that then existed in Canada; and already he had also begun to feel the burden of service for other lands. At this time an intimation came to him through one of the Friends attending the Yearly Meeting, of service that would be required of him over the sea, in which service he has since laid down his life.

"After leaving Brooklyn, where he had resided for a considerable time, he removed to Cleveland, Ohio, and found there, as elsewhere, that the work to which he was called fully occupied his time. Many were gathered to Christ through his faithful ministry, before the time came when it was made clear to him that he must visit England. Having obtained a minute for service here, he arrived in this country in time to attend in succession the Yearly Meetings of Dublin and London in the year 1888.

"For a couple of years John Dorland's family continued to reside in Wellington, Canada while he pursued his labours, visiting meetings, adult schools &c., throughout this country. A deepened interest in our own meetings, especially amongst our younger members, was the result of this labour that became apparent almost everywhere. To may also his ministry was a call to surrender to Christ, while to others it was an awakening to a more consecrated service. In the year 1889 his wife joined him for a short time in these labours, and he returned with her on a visit to his family in Canada.

"During this visit he attended Canada Yearly Meeting, in which he was appointed Clerk. Returning to England, he continued his labours under his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting, until early in the year 1890, when a trip he had long desired to make to the East was undertaken in company with J. Allen Baker. The journey extended to Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Constantinople and Athens, occupying several months, and proving one of the deepest interest to John Dorland. Not long after his return, he felt it right to remove his family from Canada to England, and for this purpose he again visited Canada at its next Yearly Meeting, which proved to be a larger meeting than had gathered for some years. It was no small trial for John Dorland to leave his aged parents and his home on this occasion, and it proved the last time he was to see the face of his father, as his decease had taken place before John Dorland's next return to Canada. But his call to England being clear, it was ever and added comfort to him in the prosecution of his work to know how freely and fully his parents had given him up for it, and how prayerfully they followed him in it.

"In a letter from Wellington, just before he sailed with his family, he wrote - "They want me to come to Cleveland, but I can see nothing but England!... This is home, and only His call could take me from it. My dear parents are so sweet about our going... For all I dread to leave, there is such a joy in the prospect of taking up my work in England. I trust God is preparing me for it in a larger measure also. Oh for His power in saving and sanctifying."

"It was the autumn of the year 1890 that John Dorland brought his family to England, settling at "Densbrook", Willesden Junction, London, which continued to be his permanent home until the time of his decease. The range of his work was now extended, taking in a largely increased number of engagements in connection with adult schools and mission centres, while at the same time continuing the specific work for which he had obtained his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting. When he had fully completed what he felt to be required of him under this minute, for a couple of years he employed part of his time under a business engagement with Joseph Baker & Sons of London. This work was not allowed to interfere with his continuing his gospel labours, for which he was free to absent himself at any time; and series of meetings, conventions, addresses, etc., continued to largely occupy him. It was under this engagement that he went to Chicago in the year 1893, remaining for several months during the time of the Exhibition. While thus engaged in business, he there found acceptable service with the Chicago Friends' Meeting, as expressed by a very cordial minute of that Meeting. During this visit to America he also had the opportunity of visiting New York Yearly Meeting.

"Upon returning from England his whole time was again devoted to religious and philanthropic work. When the Friends' First-day School Association was re-organized, and it became necessary to have a Secretary able to devote considerable time to the work, attending Annual Meetings, Conferences, etc., John T. Dorland accepted this post. During the last year and a quarter of his life he was also Editor of "One and All," the magazine of the Association, being also a frequent contributor to the "Friend," and for a considerable time responsible for the issue of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union Monthly Circular; and being actively engaged in promoting the establishment of branches and strengthening the work of that Union, his time was very closely occupied, and much of it necessarily spent away from home.

"In every department his work was characterized by forcible clearness, sound judgement, and rich spiritual power; and his life in a remarkable manner exemplified the effective influence of the large-hearted Christian, faithful to his convictions as a thorough Friend. He felt that we could put no limitations upon the work and operation of the Holy Spirit, and "magnified his office," or, as expressed in the revised version, like Paul, he "glorified his ministry."

"About seven months before his death he took an extended journey to the East on religious service, in company with his wife and Lucy E. and Mary E. Mouncey. This trip but deepened his interest in Egypt, Palestine, and the countries he had visited before, and his sympathies were greatly increased and feelings aroused on behalf of the Armenians. Many interesting addresses were given by him on the Eastern lands.

"Few who ever came in contact with John Dorland but were impressed with his only too rare combination of profound earnestness with a bright, joyous, and hopeful Christian character. The news of his death after a few days' illness, passed as a great shock, not only throughout this country, but wherever he had been known.

"John T. Dorland left a widow and four children - two sons and two daughters - one of the latter being born in England. In the Eighth month last Lavinia H. Dorland and her family returned to Wellington, Ontario, Canada.

"It was from attendance at the last and most encouraging Annual Meeting of the Friends' First-day School Association, held at Bristol, that John T. Dorland returned to London with a slight cold; and attending the Quarterly Meeting at Devonshire House, took a further chill. Seeming to be partially recovered he proceeded to Manchester to attend some meetings of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union and the Byrom Street Adult School. Although more ill than he appeared, he felt that he must attend the first of these - the F.C.F.U. Meeting, into which the whole of his concern seemed to centre. The meeting was a time of very manifest blessing and outpouring of the Holy Spirit. John Dorland spoke with great power, faithfully delivering the message committed to him; and the address given in that last meeting will long be remembered by many besides those who were privileged to be present. Within an hour after its conclusion he was prostrated in much pain and suffering of the late William Brockbank, "Brockhurst," Didsbury, near Manchester, and was never able to rise again. He was joined by his wife, and a day or two later by J. Allen Baker, from London. The most skilful physicians and trained nurses were in attendance night and day, and every possible means that generous hospitality and tender solicitude could provide were freely employed to save his life, but all in vain. One week from the time of his last meeting, as the sun of a new day was breaking in through the trees in front of the mansion where he lay, he peacefully passed to his eternal rest. His wish, expressed some years before, that he might die in harness was granted; and in the hours of consciousness his expressions of peace and joy in the prospect of being with his Lord were very precious to those who heard them. No dying words were needed to witness the reality and blessedness of a spirit-filled life such as his; and the self-denial and singular devotion which characterised its entire course will long remain a monument and testimony to the praise of Him who has now called His faithful servant from the service of earth to the higher service of Heaven."

An interesting story appeared in the Chico press after his death:

Hubbs' Dying Statement

Chico, California, July 27. - Cornelius Hubbs, who was shot by his rival, Raymond Bierce, yesterday, who afterward committed suicide, died today. Mrs. Hubbs' wound is not serious.

Before dying Hubbs mad an ante-mortem statement to the district attorney. He said that when he visited Mrs. Barney's house with his wife yesterday, he found Bierce there. Bierce abused them and tried to quarrel. Hubbs and wife started to go, when Bierce, who a moment before had stepped into an adjoining room reappeared and fired, the ball striking Hubbs. Hubbs returned the fire, and four shots were fired by each man. Hubbs told his wife to leave and went out the door himself. When he found his wife was not with him, he returned, and hearing two more shots in the room, broke open the door, as Bierce had locked. He grappled with Bierce and threw him to the floor. Hubbs states that Mrs. Barney made no effort to stop Bierce's shooting, but tried to get him (Hubbs) to let Bierce up, although the latter had been thrown to the floor.
