1731: Moved to Nine Partners, Dutchess County. All children were born there.

The Leavens Families

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; (pages 479 - 487)

"Prompted by the unsettled condition of the New England States at the close of the Revolutionary War, and undaunted by the trials and hardships of pioneering, the Leavens entered the lists of the brave men who fathered Upper Canada."

"Their genealogy is clearly traced from John Leavens, who was born in the English County of Essex in the year 1582, and who, with his wife Elizabeth, sailed for America on the ship "William Francis," and landed at Boston in 1632.

John Leavens died in 1647, seven years after his son John was born in Roxbury, Mass. John, Jr. (died in 1796), in his turn had a son called Peter, who was born in Killingly, Conn., in 1677, married, and had two children, Esther and Peter; the latter born in 1707.

"In the year 1745 this Peter Leavens married Catherine Caston in Westchester County, N.Y. Their children were Patience, born 1745, married Vincent Vermilyea; Esther, born 1747, died young; Hannah, born 1750, married Joseph Thorn; Peter, born 1751, married Hannah Hunt; Joseph, born 1754; Elizabeth, born 1757, married Daniel Dean; Sarah, born 1757, died young; Catherine, born 1760, married Avraham Hyatt; Phoebe, born 1762, died young, and Benjamin, born 1766

"Of Peter Leaven's family at least three of its members came into Canada. They were Joseph, who married Phoebe Atwill in 1775; Benjamin, who married Sarah Cunningham in 1767, and Catherine, who married Abraham Hyatt. The two brothers and sister settled in different parts of the township of Hallowell. Their home had been in Dutchess County, N.Y. They lived at Nine Partners, a town which grew out of the business enterprise of nine Friends who formed a partnership.

"Joseph, the eldest of the three, taught school in Dutchess County. He was an Orthodox Friend, and as minister of the Society for forty years was constantly travelling through Upper Canada. All his children were born in Dutchess County before he moved to Canada in 1798. He died in 1845, his wife having predeceased him by three years.

"Benjamin Leavens, the youngest brother of Joseph, came to Canada in 1802. He was already married and all his family, with the exception of Mary, who was subsequently born in Prince Edward County, were born before coming to Canada. He settled about two and a half miles north of Bloomfield in the township of Hallowell. The old homestead at first comprised about a hundred and seventy-five acres, but with growing prosperity it was increased to over four hundred acres. The pioneer was a shoemaker, and with profit to himself worked at that trade among the prospering community of Friends settled in and around Bloomfield. His shoemaker's hammer and lap-stone are still proudly possessed by a grandson. But eventually the call of the rich loam land was too loud for him not to answer, and he laid aside the hammer and apron to follow the plow. He lived to the age of seventy-seven years, dying in the year 1843. His wife, who was probably a sister of the brothers Charles and William Cunningham, was born in the same year as himself, but survived him by four years.

"There was a third family of Leavens in Upper Canada. This was the family of Peter Leavens, a nephew of the brothers Joseph and Benjamin, and who also settled in Bloomfield. He is said to have emigrated to Canada because of his disinclination to serve in the ranks of a troop called the Light Horse Company. The journey north was performed on sleighs of a roughly constructed type, and was not attended by any great degree of pleasure. At one stage the whole party were on the verge of being lost by their unwittingly driving too near the track of a deadly swamp. But they were saved by the warning shouts of a settler who lived nearby.

"Peter Leavens was the first to start the business of a tanner and currier in Bloomfield. The success with which his enterprise was attended gave him encouragement to start making shoes and harness. He left Bloomfield about the year 1836, when he settled in Sidney. He died in that township in the year 1866, at the age of sixty-one years. His wife, who was Elizabeth Smith, died in 1851, aged fifty-nine years.

"Eliphalet Leavens, a son of the old preacher, was seven years old when brought to Canada. He settled on his homestead near Bloomfield in the year 1820. With its many added improvements, the old homestead is now in the possession of Walter R. Leavens, J.P., a grandson of Eliphalet. It came into the Leavens family indirectly through the service Eliphalet rendered the country during the War of 1812. He transported troops and stores on the Danforth road between Kingston and Toronto, and for these services drew a hundred acres in Prince Edward County. He traded his first hundred acres for a hundred of the Tara Hall property near Wellington. These he traded in turn for the three hundred and eighty acres which comprise the old homestead near Bloomfield. When he took up his land there was not a "stick cut on it." He lumbered and made most of his money out of the timber, which was principally oak, pine and rock elm. The cut staves and hewn square timber he took to Picton. There he made a raft which he cut loose in the spring. Rafting his way to Quebec he sold his limber. Like all the other old-time voyageurs, he had many narrow escapes. On one occasion he found a man on his raft had developed smallpox; but Eliphalet, fortunately, did not contract the disease.

"Daniel Leavens was a son of the pioneer Benjamin and came to Canada when only eleven years old. He succeeded his father in the ownership of the old homestead lying to the northwest of Bloomfield. It had been handed down through successive generations, and to-day remains in the possession of a descendant of its pioneer proprietor. The old homestead, built of cedar logs, although greatly benefited by many times repairs, and largely extended by additions found necessary, still stands, like some old jewel in a new setting.

"Daniel made his house a home by marrying Jane Blount in 1809. The ceremony was performed before Stephen Conger, a Justice of the Peace; for ministers were scarce in those days and their services were often dispensed with by espousing couples. The seventeen-year-old bride was the daughter of Cornelius Blount. He was one of Hallowell's early settlers who came in with the Bowermans. Purchasing land from the Crown, he settled at Bloomfield near his fellow-travellers. It is related that he was compelled to carry on his back all the way from Picton, six miles distant, the only board he could find suitable for a door for his log cabin. Although brought up a Presbyterian, he became an orthodox Friend, probably through the influence of his wife, whose maiden name was Lydia Bull. In his house is said to have been held the first Friends' meeting in Prince Edward County.

"Daniel Leavens was drafted in the War of 1812, but for the sum of eighty dollars he was able to provide a substitute. During that war he engaged in transporting troops and military stores from Kingston to Toronto. He was a magistrate when he died in 1879 at the old age of ninety years. His wife lived to be seventy-five, and died in 1868/

"A son of Daniel's, also named Daniel, settled on the old homestead and married Helen Werden. She was a granddaughter of Asa Werden, who was at one time parliamentary representative for Prince Edward. Asa Werden was probably the richest man in the county. He could walk for a distance of five miles from his home in Athol and keep on his own land. Daniel Leavens, the grandson of the pioneer, at first settles on the old homestead, but finally went to Coral in the State of Michigan.

"Lydia J. Leavens, daughter of Daniel Leavens and granddaughter of Benjamin Leavens, the pioneer, married Hugh McDonald, who sprung from Highland Scotch parents, and who, upon coming to Canada, settled in Glengarry. His mother belonged to the Scotch McMillan family, and her children, among others, included Ann, Sarah, Ewan and Ronald. High was born in Glengarry in 1805, and as a boy engaged in the logging and lumbering business, so closely associated with the history of that region. He came West, however, while still a young man, and married and settled in Prince Edward County."

"Pioneer Life..." suggests that he moved to Canada in 1798 with his wife from Dutchess County, and that all children were born in New York state before the family emigrated.

Family had four daughters, five sons;
Joseph was a Quaker Preacher of the Hicksite Quaker Branch.

The Hicksite Quakers, named after Elias Hicks, were a faction that split away from orthodox Quaker beliefs. The Hicksites believed that personal "Inner Light" was the primary source of truth, and that the teachings of the Bible were secondary. The Orthodox Quakers believed that the Bible was the primary authority. The Hicksites believed that sin came from turning away from God's will, while the Orthodox branch believed that man was sinful by nature, and salvation could only come through surrendering to Jesus Christ.

Date of death from Quaker Meeting Records, West Lake Monthly Meeting Register.

There are a number of LEAVENS/LEAVINS family members mentioned in the Quaker Records; all have not yet been attributed to the West Lake families.

His obituary in the Picton Sun:

"Died in the township of Hallowell, about the 24th of May, 1844, the venerable Joseph Leavens, in the 92nd year of his age. He was amongst the early settlers of the Canadian forest, and emigrated from New York State, and probably was a native of Nine Partners District. He had long been a Preacher of the Religious Society of Friends, and though not possessed of more than one talent, yet it is believed that, as he occupied that to his Maker's glory, his reward will be as certain as though he received ten talents. He was a diligent reader in the sacred volume. He was much beloved both by his neighbours and friends, and it is desired that his gospel labours may be profitably remembered by them and his relatives."

He married Phoebe Atwill #70934, 01 January 1775 in Nine Partners, Dutchess County, New York State,² b. 05 June 1755 in Dutchess County, New York State,² religion 1828 Society of Friends/Orthodox Quaker, d. 1842 in Bloomfield, Prince Edward County, Ontario, buried in Friends Cemetery, Bloomfield, Hallowell Township, Prince Edward County, Ontario.

Abraham:

A number of the settlers in Prince Edward County had originally lived in Dutchess County, New York. That county extended east from the Hudson River to the Massachusetts and Connecticut borders.

Is this a son of Abraham HYATT and Sarah RYDER from Dutchess County? That couple had eight children, of whom only two have yet been located.

The most likely person is the Abraham HYATT who is listed in the 1790 Beekman, Dutchess County census. That listing shows a man and woman, over 16 years of age, and a boy and girl, under 16... these are likely Caleb, born about 1788 and Phoebe, born about 1789.

He is possibly a brother of Samuel HYATT, born about 1760 in the same area (see genealogy hya80379.pdf). That branch carried on until 1940 in Dutchess County, with the line dying out at about that time. And how does this family connect with Nathan HYATT, whose grave appears in the Disciple Cemetery at West Lake. See that genealogy here: hya100749.pdf

The Hyatt's originally lived in Nine Partners, Dutchess County, The Little Nine Partners Patent was the final patent (1706) granted in Dutchess County. It was located in the north-east part of the county, and included the present-day towns of Milan, Pine Plains, Stanford and North East. On the north was Columbia County, on the south by the Great Nine Partners Patent (1697).

Based on HYATT name and birthplace of New York State in the 1851 Prince Edward County census; I expect there are other family members, including Caleb HYATT (born c 1788) resident in the County.

Further research using the available 18th century records of Dutchess County will provide more insight into the relationships of those early families.

Some additional research (2018) into Abraham HYATT (HAIGHT) finds that he was listed on the enrolment papers of patriotic men in Dutchess County prior to the Revolutionary War.

1790: Benjamin was shown in Washington, Dutchess County in the 1790 US Census.

1799: Bought land from Captain John STINSON. That farm had two log houses, one on the "Smith Huff" hill, and one near Hugh McDonald's stone house. In the house on the hill lived Jesse WALTERS who had married Pauline CARNAHAN.

1800: The Leavens family arrived in Prince Edward County. All children except Mary were born in Dutchess County.

Death date based on Quaker Meeting Records, West Lake. Wife shown as Sarah?, died before 1844. This needs to be verified by gravestones.

The gravestones in the Bloomfield Quaker Cemetery show Benjamin, died 1847. The left half of that stone shows Sarah LEAVENS, died 1847 at age 81.

Benjamin died in 1844 at age 78 years according to grave marker.

George:

1851: Lived in St. Vincent, Grey County, Ontario

Extract from "Descendants of Josiah Bull Jr. (1738 to 183) of Dutchess County, N.Y."
compiled by Mary Lynch Young

"There is quite a tale to tell about the large family of George and Phoebe. Seven of their ten children were already married when the family decided to leave Canada. Their eldest daughter, Delinda, was carrying her seventh child, and she and her husband decided not to accompany the rest. Son Amos was living in Michigan with his wife and child but later joined the family, once they were all settled. The two youngest daughters and youngest son, all single, were still at home with the parents.

"Early in the fall of 1869, five of their married children, two unmarried daughters and the unmarried youngest son, along with two of their neighbours, also single men, formed a wagon train of nine wagons, only one of which was pulled by horses - the remaining eight wagons were pulled by oxen. The parents were in one wagon; Stephen and his wife and five small children in one; Charles and four motherless children in one; Peter and wife and two children in theirs; daughter Martha and husband Rufus Burritt and four children in theirs; their recently widowed daughter, Elizabeth, drove her own wagon (while her two young sisters, Sophronia and Roxa, probably cared for her small son and daughter); Burton, the unmarried son, drove his; their young neighbour, Joe Carwell, drove his, and young William Jarmin drove the ninth wagon. The Burritts had the only horse-drawn wagon. (Two of their children did not go with them, Delinda Bull married Zachariah Doran and stayed in Ontario. Amos Nance Bull married Catherine Belles and settled in Kansas.)

"In all they were a party of 33 people. What a sight that must have been, nine covered wagons travelling fifteen miles from Meaford, on the Georgian Bay, to Owen Sound! As I understand it, the wagons and animals had to come by ferry.

The following letter describes the Bull's (sic) trip to the "States" is written by George and Phoebe's daughter, Sophronia, who was about 21 years old when she left Canada with her parents."

"I expect the old log house is gone and a modern structure in its place by now. Our house was on the Highway, 9 miles west of Meaford and 11 miles east of Owen Sound. I sure remember how it looked when we left there and started for the States (as everyone called it then).

"We went to Port Sarnia then went by boat up Lake Huron, through the straits and down Lake Michigan. We got on the boat at night and were on 3 days and 4 nights. It was a very rough trip. I was so sea sick I did not sit up to eat a single meal.

"Wish I could see you. Then I could tell you so much more about so many things that happened on that trek from Canada to the settlement in Canada Precinct in Nebraska."

"The party disembarked at Chicago, and formed their wagon train again, heading for Iowa. The wagon party had left Meaford in October of 1869, arriving in Linn County, Iowa, near Cedar Rapids on the 6th of November, when Martha gave birth to her fifth child in the covered wagon. The group stayed in Linn County until 1871.

"They found the free land gone in Iowa and in 1871 decided to go farther west, to Nebraska, where homesteads were being taken up. They stopped in Polk County, about ten miles south of the Platt River, and filed claims in what was to become known as "Canada Township", near where the town of Shelby later was settled. The railroad had yet to be built there.

"Actually, they were close to the Blue River, from which they hauled water in barrels for their household use and where they herded their horses and cattle to drink. Once a week they would take their washing to the Blue River. It wasn't until that fall they were able to start digging a well.

"A well drilling "outfit" was secured at Lincoln by George Bull to dig a well on his homestead. They were concerned when they were not able to find water at forty feet, but still kept drilling until water was finally reached at 112 feet! They were all so worried that they had suspended their plowing of the prairie sod to see if water could be reached at all. If not, they felt they would be unable to stay there. The water they did find was pure, and cold, and was in endless supply, so that everyone was happy and went back to plowing. The table land of Nebraska was certainly different from soil in Grey County, Ontario, at the edge of the Canadian woods.

"Charles H. Bull, son of George and Phoebe, made the trip to Linn County, Iowa with his four motherless children, Youngs A., Sarah E., Amos, and Abe. Charles' wife, Catherine McDonald, had died shortly before the Bull family left for Iowa in the fall of 1869. Charles married again in 1880 to Lavina Dunning Wait and they had two children, Garfield A., and Lillian Mary Bull.

"Charles had a number of setbacks before deciding to leave Nebraska for California in 1891. In 1874 there was a grasshopper plague which destroyed the crops; in the winter of 1880/81 there was a terrible blizzard which killed most of the cattle; in 1890 there was a severe depression followed by a drought."

Gatrey:

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904, page 5.

"His daughter Gatrey is the subject of a well-known incident that happened when she was a child five years old. The family was living in the fifth concession of Sidney, and the child was sent on an errand to the house of a neighbour, Duncan Irvine, some miles distant. The forest intervened, and when darkness approached and she had not returned, the parents became alarmed. As it was evident that Gatrey had wandered from the trail and was lost, the two families instituted a search. Several Indian scouts and hunters were engaged, and for miles around the woods were searched; but the night was dark, and, to add to the difficulty, a storm of rain and hail set in. On Monday every settler and brave in the neighborhood turned out to assist; on Tuesday, the searchers had increased to three hundred. They shouted, fired guns, and looked in every hole and brush heap; caves of bears and other wild animals were searched. On Friday, Indian runners were sent up and down the Bay to call for help to find the body, as it was supposed by then that the child must be dead. The force increased to five hundred. They organized into squads and scoured the forest in every direction, but their efforts were unavailing until, just as they were about to abandon the search, the child was found alive. The joyful news was proclaimed by shouts that made the forest ring with the glad acclaim. Gatrey had wandered eight days in the forest, and had subsisted on wintergreens. The nights were cold and she was barefooted and thinly clad. One night an animal of some kind lay upon her cold feet, and lest it might kill her, she was afraid to stir. Just before she was found, she had lain down to die, having previously repeated a verse she had learned of her prayers. She was reduced to a skeleton, and it was some time before she recovered from the terrible experience. For months she shrank with terror at the approach of darkness; but in time the baneful effects of her eight day's exposure to October weather in a Canadian forest passed away, and she grew into strong and vigorous womanhood."

Thomas:

From "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte", 1904; pages 39 - 40

"Thomas J. Howard, son of Eratus (sic) Howard and Catherine Demorest, left home, at the age of fifteen years, to serve his apprenticeship as a harness maker in Wellington, where he remained five years, and in the fall of 1850 started in business for himself in Frankford. The following spring he married Miss Harriet Huyck. After five years in the harness business, owing to failing health, he sold out. On recovering his health, Mr. Howard opened a dry goods store in Frankford; and in 1870 removed his business to Wellington, where he still trades and prospers - having been in business for fifty-four years without experiencing "either fire or failure". In 1858 Mr. Howard was appointed a Justice of the Peace for the County of Hastings. The years following were marked by much litigation consequent on the enforcement of the Dunkin Act; Mr. Howard made it an unvarying rule to listen to no complaints from drunken men, and always counselled settlement of trifling disputes without recourse to the courts.

"At the age of 17 years Mr. Howard became a member of the Methodist Church - was chosen class leader in 1851 - and has been a member of the Quarterly Board almost continuously for the last half century. In 1903, when he spoke of retiring on account of infirmities, he was by a unanimous vote elected a life member of the Board."

Hugh:

1871: Charles SPROUL (sic), 13 lived with the family.

At death of daughter Emily in 1931, Hugh's birthplace is shown as "Scotland"...but at death of son Allan, he is shown to have been born in Glengarry County. In the 1851 census, his birthplace is shown as "Lower Canada"

"Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte", 1904; suggests that the family came from Scotland and settled in Glengarry.

Hugh was NOT connected, as far as can be determined, with the Block H, Hallowell Township McDonald family. However, it's probably unwise to discount the idea that Hugh was born "in transit" from New Brunswick. This needs further research!

1851: Family lived in Hallowell Township. Note that Hugh is stated to have been born in "L Canada"

1861: He and wife Lydia are found, but names of children do not all correspond with census entries... that may be because many children assumed "middle" names later in life...

Ira:

1881: Lived with wife Roxy and Cornelia A. CHADSEY, 12, born USA. What relationship was she to the family?

From the Wellington Times, 25 October 2017; "Looking Back", by Marjorie Wiltse.

"It was an era when mysticism blended easily with religion. So it was that Ira Chadsey prepared carefully for the afterlife - in which he believed that he would return to earth as a white horse. He erected mounds of stones - cairns - around his farm as unmistakable identifying markers to his reincarnated self.

"By the time he was 77 his wife, Roxey, had been dead for seven years. The couple had produced no children. So, on one summer's day in 1905, Chadsey walked down the lane to the sugar shack eating an orange. Arriving at the small shed, he set it ablaze and watched it grow. He then shot himself in a manner so that he fell back into the flames. When the fire was extinguished, nothing remained but the barrel of a gun. And a trail of orange peels.

"The cairns remain on the farm - now known as By Chadsey's Cairns Winery. The only sightings of a white horse have been on the labels of the wine produced from the vines on Ira Chadsey's farm.

"Ira Chadsey's life and that of the woman he loved is the subject of The Chadsey Play produced by Written on the Water Theatre. It previewed in the workshop at By Chadsey's Cairns Winery in the fall of 2016."

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1905; Charles Bonisteel; (page 173)

"A well-known member of the Leavens family and a lineal descendant of the sturdy United Empire Loyalist, Henry Bonisteel, is Charles H. Bonisteel no resident at Belleville, but for years himself a successful pioneer and citizen of Assiniboia. His father, Samuel Bonisteel, married Jane, daughter of Peter Leavens. His grandfather was Henry Bonisteel, who came from the United States and settled in Sidney near the famous and historical White Church; by his wife, whose maiden name was Bush, he had nine children, to wit: Peter, Samuel, Gilbert, Oriel, Sidney, Huldah, (Mrs. John Smith), Samuel, John, Elizabeth (Mrs. Vandervoort) and Abigail (Mrs. Creedman). Of these Samuel married Jane Leavens, and settled in Sidney. They had but one child, Charles H. Bonisteel, who was born upon the 16th day of July, 1850. He married (Nov. 27th, 1876) Clarissa White and had issue: Emma L., Lee H., Louise M., Jennie E., Frank W. and Sabra. Emma L., the eldest of these children married Arthur A. Perley, son of Senator Perley, of Assiniboia N.W.T, and settled at Woolsey, and had issue (1) Henry Dell, (2) Edna Louise, (3) Helen and (4) Blanche.

"Mr. Bonisteel lived in Sidney until about 1883, when he removed to Assiniboia. Here he remained for twenty years, during which time he not only secured for himself and family a handsome competence, but heartily contributed his skill and energy to throwing open and building up this future granary of the world. In 1893 the educational needs of his growing family induced his return to Ontario. Since then he has lived a retired life at Belleville, retaining his fondness for, and his interest in, the great Northwest.

"Mr. Bonisteel belongs to the Liberal party, but he has never accepted any office beyond serving for some years as Councillor while a resident of Assiniboia. He is a faithful member of the Methodist Church. He also belongs to the Independent Order of Foresters."

Philip:

Unidentified Newspaper Clipping, possibly Picton Gazette, 1935

"Philip MacDonald was a Life-Long Resident of West Point."

"Philip McDonald (sic) died at "Lakeland", early yesterday morning. While he had been confined to bed for only two days, he had been in poor health for a year and last summer suffered a slight stroke.

"Mr. McDonald was a life-long resident of West Point, the MacDonald's being early settlers of that section. His father was Alexander MacDonald and his mother, Lydia J. Abby. His grandfather was Daniel MacDonald, one of nine sons of the pioneer Daniel MacDonald, who originally came from Scotland, from which country they fled at the time of the massacre of Glencoe (see note below). The nine sons and two daughters were born in New Brunswick and they emigrated to Prince Edward County and settled in Hallowell directly after the war of 1812.

"Mr. McDonald was widely known as proprietor of the summer hotel, Lakeland, which he operated with his son, Norman. He had for many years catered to summer guests and previous to building the hotel and cottages, he had used his farm home for this purpose. He did not take a very active part in public affairs, but was a good friend and neighbor. He was a member of the Church of Christ at West Lake,

" Mr. McDonald is survived by his wife, and an only child, Norman, at home. His sister, (Alice M.) died at Wellington two years ago, and his brother, Allen, died last summer. Another brother, Richard, died when young."

Note: The Massacre of Glencoe occurred in 1692... and the progenitor of the family, Daniel, was born about 1760.

From "A Cyclopedia of Canadian Biography", 1886, George Rose

"Henry William Branscombe, Picton, Ontario, was born at Hallowell, County of Prince Edward in 1837. His father, Arthur Branscombe, was the grandson of a British officer, who served in the war of the American revolution, and after the treaty of 1783, removed to Grand Lake, Queen's County, New Brunswick, at which place a large number of the same name still reside. Early in the present century, the grandfather and father of Mr. Branscombe removed to Hallowell, Upper Canada, and settled near what is now the village of Bloomfield.

"Arthur Branscombe married Catherine Burlingham, daughter of a U.E. loyalist, who came from Dutchess County, N.Y., at the close of the war. The Burlingham's were amongst the most successful of the old settlers of Prince Edward county, and constitute, today, one of the most extensive and respectable families in that county.

"Henry W. Branscombe was educated in his native township, and at an early age commenced the study and practice of dentistry, in which profession he has risen to the foremost rank. in 1862 he left his native town for New York city, where he practised his profession with marked success for five years. He then returned to Picton, and after a sojourn of a few years, removed to Chicago, where he remained until 1879, when he returned to Canada and permanently settled in Picton. His careful steady and industrious pursuit of knowledge, together with the deep interest he has always taken in dentistry, secured for him an honourable recognition by his professional brethren, in his election to the position of secretary to the Dental Association for Ontario. After his removal to Picton, he combined the business of chemist and druggist with that of dentistry, and has for several years successfully conducted both branches.

"In local enterprise Mr. Branscombe has been found to give a helping hand. For five consecutive years he has occupied a seat at the council board, where he has made his influence felt to a marked degree. He has for years been a director of the County Agricultural Society, and is also a treasurer of the Bay of Quinte Fire Insurance Company. He is an active member of the Methodist church, and enthusiastic worker for the cause of temperance.

"Henry W. married in 1866, Sara Elizabeth Allison , daughter of the late Rev. Cyrus Allison, whose name is familiar amongst the temperance workers who under the appellation of the Women's Christian Temperance Union have done so much of late years to arouse public opinion upon this important question".

Obituary: An Appreciation of Elma Noxon Mastin

(By Charlotte Talcott-Cox), (publication name/date unknown, 1932)

"The passing of Elma A. Mastin, beloved wife of S.E. Mastin, touched the hearts of many who had known her from her earliest years to the hour of her departure from the island of Time, to the land of Eternity.

"Elma Noxon was born of Quaker parentage. Her mother was Mary J. Thomas. her father, Reuben Noxon. was a grandson of James Noxon, the first Quaker minister in Prince Edward County - if not the first in Canada. Mrs. Mastin was the grand-daughter of Jonathan Noxon and Jemima Way. Jonathan Noxon was a prominent Quaker minister who lived and died in Bloomfield.

"Mrs. Mastin, in every relation of life - wife, mother, friend and neighbour, expressed in her daily life the chief characteristics of Christian womanhood.

"In her quiet, kindly disposition lay the "Consecration" that was not wrapped in a holy web of doctrine, but in the joyful, smiling experiences of loving and living, which sprung forth fruit during her whole life. She found on earth her real heaven, and she lived in it as few knew how to live, free from envy and uncharitableness.

"She went forth upon her homeward journey leaving messages of love and kind words. She died in the autumn of life, with clustering fruits at the end of the harvest.

"We shall miss her in our community life, our Institute and Club, where her personal influence and assistance were valued.

"We deeply sympathise with the bereaved husband and family who sorrow."

"Out and beyond in the shining way."

The Annual Monitor for 1896, Quaker Published Memorials

"John T. Dorland was the son of John T. and Mary Ann Dorland, elders of West Lake Monthly Meeting, Canada. He was born in the village of Wellington, Ontario, on the 8th of the Third month, 1860. The youngest child of a family of seven, some of whom were grown up at the time of his birth, from his infancy he awakened a deep interest in those about him, and at an early age the impression was made upon his mother's heart that the Lord would call this one of her children to engage in His service as a Minister of the Gospel. The loving care of three grown-up sisters in his father's home had much to do with the moulding of his character, and his childhood became a time of seed-sowing that in after years brought forth an abundant increase.

"Amidst the beautiful surroundings and quiet of his native village, which is pleasantly situated upon the shores of Lake Ontario, he grew from childhood to youth, having at one time a strong desire to follow a literary career, but subsequently determining to engage in the study of law. Neither of these professions, however, were to be his life work. At a very tender age he manifested a deep interest in the Bible, and in the First-day school which he attended as a little child he was able, apparently with but little effort, to remember and repeat long passages of Scripture. But notwithstanding his many natural gifts, and the fact of his careful home training, he was soon made conscious of the need of having his heart opened to the Saviour's love., There were times when he felt he must surrender to these visitations of Divine love, and when he was under deep conviction; but unwillingness to trust fully, and a fear that if he were converted he would have to go abroad as a missionary, prevented his finding the rest and peace that come from God when the life is given up in whole-hearted surrender to Him. So the years passed until he was seventeen years of age, when the death of a beloved friend, his brother-in-law, Seburn Dorland, made a lasting impression upon him. This faithful servant of his Lord had come from the United States, hoping that the lake air would benefit his health; and his beautiful life and loving ministry were often afterwards spoken of by John Dorland as amongst the great blessings of his life. By the side of his open grave the silent prayer went up that his life might become such as his brother-in-law's had been - a prayer that has now had its gracious answer and remarkable fulfilment in the completed course of his own life, so full of the Divine blessing.

"Although these solemn calls and seasons of deep conviction had their marked influence, months passed before the light broke in and made John Dorland a new man in Christ Jesus. The desire to fit himself for the profession of his choice, the strong claims of his natural ambition to excel, and the day dreams of his boyhood, all had to be surrendered. There was before him no middle course. Christ must have all. Terrible though the ordeal seemed to all the pride of his buoyant young manhood, and sore the grief he felt to cause disappointment to some he loved, who shared the desire that he might follow the profession of his choice (in which doubtless he would have gained distinction), when the power of Divine grace brought the issues clearly home to his heart, his choice was made with a childlike trust, a singular steadfastness of purpose, and a single-hearted desire to be and to do all that God required of him. Humbly yielding to the divine will there came at once to his life much of the joyous and attractive power of grace, that made him such an honoured witness for his Lord. The work of his testimony began at once, and at Pickering College he was the means of influencing many of the students to become Christians, and "where," writes one of his friends of his boyhood, "he was admired by them for his straight-forward, upright Christian life."

"After leaving college John T. Dorland engaged in teaching for a time, but was soon called upon to relinquish this, as well as preparation for his chosen profession, and to go forth in the service of the Gospel. Great blessing attended even the very first of these journeys, and many conversations resulted. In the first neighbourhood visited, a meeting house where there had been no regular meeting was re-opened, and some time afterwards two further meetings were started in the same district. As the year 1881 was growing to a close, at the age of twenty-one, his gift to the ministry was acknowledged by his Monthly Meeting, and on the 18th of First month, 1882, he became a recorded minister.

"At this time an important change in his life took place. This was his marriage, on the 29th of Twelfth month, 1881, to Lavinia Hubbs, the daughter of William S. and Margaret Hubbs, of Bloomfield. Shortly before this John Dorland had accepted a business engagement with Elias Rogers, a Friend of Toronto, and in the newly -established meeting in that city, his ministry was continued and much blessed towards the building up and strengthening of the work that had been begun after the visit to Canada of Walter Morris. After residing for about a year in Toronto, John T. and Lavinia Dorland, with their infant daughter Margaret, removed to Brooklyn, U.S., which became their home for a couple of years. Here his time was fully taken up with his Gospel labours and visits to other Yearly Meetings, including his own in Canada. Visiting this in 1883 he met Isaac Sharp, Alfred Wright and other friends who were present from other Yearly Meetings. Already his character was distinguished by the exercise in large measure of the gracious influence of a controlled and spirit-filled life, which was the more manifest amidst the somewhat disturbed conditions that then existed in Canada; and already he had also begun to feel the burden of service for other lands. At this time an intimation came to him through one of the Friends attending the Yearly Meeting, of service that would be required of him over the sea, in which service he has since laid down his life.

"After leaving Brooklyn, where he had resided for a considerable time, he removed to Cleveland, Ohio, and found there, as elsewhere, that the work to which he was called fully occupied his time. Many were gathered to Christ through his faithful ministry, before the time came when it was made clear to him that he must visit England. Having obtained a minute for service here, he arrived in this country in time to attend in succession the Yearly Meetings of Dublin and London in the year 1888.

"For a couple of years John Dorland's family continued to reside in Wellington, Canada while he pursued his labours, visiting meetings, adult schools &c., throughout this country. A deepened interest in our own meetings, especially amongst our younger members, was the result of this labour that became apparent almost everywhere. To may also his ministry was a call to surrender to Christ, while to others it was an awakening to a more consecrated service. In the year 1889 his wife joined him for a short time in these labours, and he returned with her on a visit to his family in Canada.

"During this visit he attended Canada Yearly Meeting, in which he was appointed Clerk. Returning to England, he continued his labours under his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting, until early in the year 1890, when a trip he had long desired to make to the East was undertaken in company with J. Allen Baker. The journey extended to Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Constantinople and Athens, occupying several months, and proving one of the deepest interest to John Dorland. Not long after his return, he felt it right to remove his family from Canada to England, and for this purpose he again visited Canada at its next Yearly Meeting, which proved to be a larger meeting than had gathered for some years. It was no small trial for John Dorland to leave his aged parents and his home on this occasion, and it proved the last time he was to see the face of his father, as his decease had taken place before John Dorland's next return to Canada. But his call to England being clear, it was ever and added comfort to him in the prosecution of his work to know how freely and fully his parents had given him up for it, and how prayerfully they followed him in it.

"In a letter from Wellington, just before he sailed with his family, he wrote - "They want me to come to Cleveland, but I can see nothing but England!... This is home, and only His call could take me from it. My dear parents are so sweet about our going... For all I dread to leave, there is such a joy in the prospect of taking up my work in England. I trust God is preparing me for it in a larger measure also. Oh for His power in saving and sanctifying."

"It was the autumn of the year 1890 that John Dorland brought his family to England, settling at "Densbrook", Willesden Junction, London, which continued to be his permanent home until the time of his decease. The range of his work was now extended, taking in a largely increased number of engagements in connection with adult schools and mission centres, while at the same time continuing the specific work for which he had obtained his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting. When he had fully completed what he felt to be required of him under this minute, for a couple of years he employed part of his time under a business engagement with Joseph Baker & Sons of London. This work was not allowed to interfere with his continuing his gospel labours, for which he was free to absent himself at any time; and series of meetings, conventions, addresses, etc., continued to largely occupy him. It was under this engagement that he went to Chicago in the year 1893, remaining for several months during the time of the Exhibition. While thus engaged in business, he there found acceptable service with the Chicago Friends' Meeting, as expressed by a very cordial minute of that Meeting. During this visit to America he also had the opportunity of visiting New York Yearly Meeting.

"Upon returning from England his whole time was again devoted to religious and philanthropic work. When the Friends' First-day School Association was re-organized, and it became necessary to have a Secretary able to devote considerable time to the work, attending Annual Meetings, Conferences, etc., John T. Dorland accepted this post. During the last year and a quarter of his life he was also Editor of "One and All," the magazine of the Association, being also a frequent contributor to the "Friend," and for a considerable time responsible for the issue of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union Monthly Circular; and being actively engaged in promoting the establishment of branches and strengthening the work of that Union, his time was very closely occupied, and much of it necessarily spent away from home.

"In every department his work was characterized by forcible clearness, sound judgement, and rich spiritual power; and his life in a remarkable manner exemplified the effective influence of the large-hearted Christian, faithful to his convictions as a thorough Friend. He felt that we could put no limitations upon the work and operation of the Holy Spirit, and "magnified his office," or, as expressed in the revised version, like Paul, he "glorified his ministry."

"About seven months before his death he took an extended journey to the East on religious service, in company with his wife and Lucy E. and Mary E. Mouncey. This trip but deepened his interest in Egypt, Palestine, and the countries he had visited before, and his sympathies were greatly increased and feelings aroused on behalf of the Armenians. Many interesting addresses were given by him on the Eastern lands.

"Few who ever came in contact with John Dorland but were impressed with his only too rare combination of profound earnestness with a bright, joyous, and hopeful Christian character. The news of his death after a few days' illness, passed as a great shock, not only throughout this country, but wherever he had been known.

"John T. Dorland left a widow and four children - two sons and two daughters - one of the latter being born in England. In the Eighth month last Lavinia H. Dorland and her family returned to Wellington, Ontario, Canada.

"It was from attendance at the last and most encouraging Annual Meeting of the Friends' First-day School Association, held at Bristol, that John T. Dorland returned to London with a slight cold; and attending the Quarterly Meeting at Devonshire House, took a further chill. Seeming to be partially recovered he proceeded to Manchester to attend some meetings of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union and the Byrom Street Adult School. Although more ill than he appeared, he felt that he must attend the first of these - the F.C.F.U. Meeting, into which the whole of his concern seemed to centre. The meeting was a time of very manifest blessing and outpouring of the Holy Spirit. John Dorland spoke with great power, faithfully delivering the message committed to him; and the address given in that last meeting will long be remembered by many besides those who were privileged to be present. Within an hour after its conclusion he was prostrated in much pain and suffering of the late William Brockbank, "Brockhurst," Didsbury, near Manchester, and was never able to rise again. He was joined by his wife, and a day or two later by J. Allen Baker, from London. The most skilful physicians and trained nurses were in attendance night and day, and every possible means that generous hospitality and tender solicitude could provide were freely employed to save his life, but all in vain. One week from the time of his last meeting, as the sun of a new day was breaking in through the trees in front of the mansion where he lay, he peacefully passed to his eternal rest. His wish, expressed some years before, that he might die in harness was granted; and in the hours of consciousness his expressions of peace and joy in the prospect of being with his Lord were very precious to those who heard them. No dying words were needed to witness the reality and blessedness of a spirit-filled life such as his; and the self-denial and singular devotion which characterised its entire course will long remain a monument and testimony to the praise of Him who has now called His faithful servant from the service of earth to the higher service of Heaven."

An interesting story appeared in the Chico press after his death:

Hubbs' Dying Statement

Chico, California, July 27. - Cornelius Hubbs, who was shot by his rival, Raymond Bierce, yesterday, who afterward committed suicide, died today. Mrs. Hubbs' wound is not serious.

Before dying Hubbs mad an ante-mortem statement to the district attorney. He said that when he visited Mrs. Barney's house with his wife yesterday, he found Bierce there. Bierce abused them and tried to quarrel. Hubbs and wife started to go, when Bierce, who a moment before had stepped into an adjoining room reappeared and fired, the ball striking Hubbs. Hubbs returned the fire, and four shots were fired by each man. Hubbs told his wife to leave and went out the door himself. When he found his wife was not with him, he returned, and hearing two more shots in the room, broke open the door, as Bierce had locked. He grappled with Bierce and threw him to the floor. Hubbs states that Mrs. Barney made no effort to stop Bierce's shooting, but tried to get him (Hubbs) to let Bierce up, although the latter had been thrown to the floor.

Extract from an undated newspaper clipping (Ogdensburg):

"When Flames Destroy Home"

"Neighbors Save 5 Before Cut Off By Fire"

"Ogdensburg - (AP) - Three children lost their lives here yesterday when fire swept the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hyatt.

"The victims, all children of the Hyatts, were Anne, 12; William, 10; and Patricia, 8.

"The Hyatts, Elijah Hyatt, grandfather of the victims, and two other children, Marie, 14, and Helen, 7, were rescued. Firemen fought unsuccessfully to get through the flames to rooms where the children were sleeping.

"John Hyatt, uncle of the victims, who lived next door, discovered the fire and turned in the alarm. He and neighbors raised ladders before firemen arrived and rescued the parents and others.

"After the blaze was quenched the three victims were taken from the house, but were declared dead before a hospital was reached. Coroner's Physician R.L. Stacy said the deaths were caused by asphyxiation.

"The fire occurred a short distance from the home of Frank Petrilli where a similar fire took the lives of five children."

1940: After the fire in 1938, the remaining family moved to Elmira, Chemung County, New York, living at 351 Spalding Street.
