"The McDonnell Family"

"It was in the year 1791 that Alexander McDonnell, then twenty years of age, accompanied by three brothers, names Henry, Charles and William, dissatisfied with the scope of young ambition, and unwilling to waste their youthful energy on an unproductive soil, consulted together on what it might be best to do in order to insure bigger profits and quicker returns than seemed possible in Ireland.

"Canada had been much in their thoughts and formed the staple of their conversation during the eight during the eight years in which the United Empire Loyalists had been flocking into the Maritime Provinces. Among these provinces, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick were the first to be settled, and it was to the latter province that the McDonnells directed their attention to begin with, and Charles thinking, perhaps, he might go farther and fare worse, decided upon settling there. it was not a choice to be regretted, as events turned out, for Charles entered there upon a successful business career, married, and amassed a considerable fortune.

"The brothers, now reduced to three in number, resolved on a prospecting tour, and prepared to make the long and tedious voyage in a batteau from New Brunswick to Kingston. Kingston, already become a place of importance, provided them with necessary work for a season; but bent on proceeding farther westward, they came to Prince Edward County. Not long afterwards one of the brothers, William, died; and Henry and Alexander settled down as farmers in that county.

"Alexander, the pioneer of this branch of the family, had had some experience of a business life in London, England. When a mere boy - nine years old, it is said - he was sent from his native place in Kilkenny, Ireland, to his grandmother in London, where he remained ten years before the four brothers resolved on emigrating (sic) to Canada; and during a portion of his stay in London, he was employed in a mercantile house. The War of 1812 gave him an opportunity, which he was not loth to embrace, of emulating the Loyalists, whose stand in the Revolution had formed the topic of many a conversation among the brothers in bygone days. He served with the British throughout the war, and at its close received in recognition of his services, a grant of land in Victoria County, of which, however he never availed himself.

"He married Sarah Pierce, daughter of a neighboring settler, by whom he had a family of nine daughters and two sons. His youngest son, Charles A., married Hannah Bongard. He was well-known in the district, having lived and flourished as a merchant in Picton for twenty-three years. He was also an extensive dealer in grain. He served on the Picton Town Council for twenty-three years, and for two years was Councillor in the township of South Marysburg. His son, Alexander - a grandson of the pioneer - who now lived on the old homestead, was at one time Lieutenant-Colonel of the 16th Battalion. He is one of the successful farmers of South Marysburg, and recently set up a mill for grinding the produce of the neighborhood. The Colonel is one of the youngest officers of his rank on the Militia List, and manifests a deep interest in all that pertains to the well-being of the citizen soldiery of his country. Three daughters of his family married into the Spafford family, one of the oldest and most widely known in the district.

" Alexander McDonnell died in 1857 in his eighty-sixth year; his wife lived till 1868, when she had reached the same year of her life."

He married Sarah Pierce #81435, 12 August 1806 in Marysburgh, Prince Edward County, Ontario,⁴ b. c. 1782 - 1785 in England (daughter of Isaac (Patrick) Pierce #254548 and Elizabeth Hammond #254549), d. 23 October 1868 in Prince Edward County, Ontario,² buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Picton, Prince Edward County, Ontario.³

Melbourne:

Extracted from "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte", 1905, pages 888-894

"Perhaps one of the most influential and public-spirited citizens of North Marysburg is Mr. Melbourne Wright, a grandson of James Wright and great-grandson of the Pioneer, who resides in the neighborhood of Prinyer. Mr. Wright is known by his intimates as "Mell," and to the passing stranger always proves to be a "good Samaritan." In politics, as in everything else, he is independent and liberal.

"A man well read, and familiar with the main public issues of the day, Mr. Wright takes a pleasure in his life's work and can show visitors a handsome avenue of beautiful and symmetrical maples of a good size that he planted with his own hands. The loss of his loved wife, who died April 3, 1887, was a sore trial to him, as was also the death of his brother George Sills Wright, of whom he speaks with much feeling.

"Among relics of a time now passed, and of which it is a constant reminder, Mr. Wright shows a cedar sill in his driving house that was a port in a block-house at Prinyer's Cove, erected about the time of the American War of Independence".
