Thomas was the HERRINGTON and MIKEL family genealogist, and organized several reunions of those families in the mid-1930s.

Here is an excerpt about the Herrington Family.

The Herrington Family

26 June 1936

The Picton Gazette

One of the oldest and earlier settlers in the county of Prince Edward is the Herrington Family. After the close of the American Revolutionary War of 1783, rather than to come under the stars and stripes, the two Herrington brothers came to Canada from New York State with other United Empire Loyalists to live under the protection of the British flag. They left their home in Dutchess County, New York State, and settled in Prince Edward County.

The two brothers, namely Zachariah Herrington and Jeremiah Herrington, settled on a farm along Consecun Lake, now owned and occupied by Thomas Mikel, where there has been two reunion picnics held during the last two years. This year, July 1st, the third annual re0union will be held at Presqu'ile. All descendants are requested to attend. Zachariah Herrington married Abigail Wannamaker and to them were born the following: Sarah Ann Herrington, born 1815, married John Mikel. Mrs. Mark Sharpe is the only surviving daughter and her son, Rev. L.M. Sharpe, is President of the Herrington Reunion. Sarah Ann Herrington and her husband lived a number of years here on the old Herrington Homestead with their son O.R. Mikel, then spending their latter days with their son J.H. Mikel, Ninth Concession of Murray, Northumberland County. J.H. Mikel is the father of the writer. Sara Ann Herrington and John Mikel lived to a good old age. She died in 1895 and he died in 1894 and were buried at Stockdale Cemetery.

Polly Herrington married Sylvester Reddick, was born 1817 and died quite young. Her youngest daughter Caroline being only a year old. She is now 85 and lived with her son and daughter in Trenton. William Reddick of Ameliasburgh and Oscar Reddick of Wellington are grandsons.

Phoebe Ann Herrington married Ives Beach and lived on a farm along Consecon Lake., now owned by Mr. Robert Millar. One of her daughters married Dentist Dulmage. Caroline Herrington married Samuel McCarthy. I have no trace of this family and would be glad of any information of them.

Mary Ann Herrington married a Mr. Morgan, and had several sons - one a doctor, and a son Joseph Morgan had a fur store in Belleville at one time. The Morgans all went to the United States. I would be glad to get any information of them.

Charles Herrington married Harriet Kemp, was born 1826, died 1903. He lived in around Consecon and Carrying Place. Newton Herrington, Stillman Herrington are his two sons living, Rosa and Abigail his daughters are also living. (Annie), Mrs. Elias Clarke, (Nettie), Mrs. Phillips, and George Herrington deceased. William Herrington married and lived near Madoc. Allan Herrington of Rossmore was a son. The rest of his descendants live around Madoc. His oldest son, William Herrington, is living. James Herrington married and lived near Foxboro. A daughter Abigail Herrington married Perry Thomson, Foxboro.

Catherine Herrington married James Reid and lived at Belleville. A son, Charles Reid lived near Rednersville, he and his wife being the oldest couple at the Reunion two years ago. His wife passed away before the second Reunion. Charles Reid was the oldest gentleman at last year's Reunion and received the prize. Mrs. George Sills (Rilla), is a daughter and with her Catherine Herrington passed away in 1915, a very old lady.

Zachariah Herrington lived and died along Consecon Lake, May 22, 1843* His wife Abigail Wannamaker lived with her youngest daughter, Catherine, and on April 12, 1862*, the dear old lady was noticed by her granddaughter, Rilla Reid, who ran and told her mother (Catherine), that grandmother was home, passed peacefully away sitting in her old arm chair.

This verse is very fitting.

I love it, I love it and who shall dare
To chide me for loving that old arm chair
I've treasured it as long as a sainted prize
I've bedewed it with tears and embalmed it with sighs
Tis bound by a thousand bonds to my heart
Would you learn the spell. A mother sat there
And that sacred thing is that old arm chair.

The descendants of Jeremiah Herrington and his wife Rachel Herrington are as follows, Moses Herrington, married Elizabeth Weeks first, and second Melissa Simpson
Moses Herrington was born November 15, 1808, his wife Elizabeth Weeks April 9, 1808. They had Stephen, Alvin, Reuben, Elenor, Darius, Rachel, Henry, Gideon, and with his last wife Melissa Simpson, Jeremiah, Allen and Emma the last. Ellan married Mr. Sabins and attended the reunion last year. Most of these descendants live around Hilton and Colborne.

Jacob Herrington married and lived north of Hilton. He had several children. He was drowned when a mill dam broke away, taking the mills and him with it, at the break away back of Hilton.

Jeremiah Herrington married and kept hotel at the Carrying Place for a number of years.

James Herrington married and kept hotel in Michigan.

John Herrington married and lived in Rochester, New York, the latter part of his life.

William Herrington married Rebecca Carleton and lived near Hilton. One daughter, (Ellen), Mrs. Esli Terrill, Wooler, is still living.

Phoebe Herrington married Mr. W. Yerex and lived on a farm near Picton.

Charlotte Herrington married Mr. Frank German and kept hotel at Frankford.

Sarah Ann Herrington married Henry Huyck and lived along Consecon Lake. Agnes Huyck married Jacob Parliament and lived next farm west. Will Parliament and Peter Parliament were sons. Charles:

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904

"His son, Charles W. Saylor, was born in Prince Edward County April 20th, 1863, and educated at the old historical No. 2 school, Sidney. He spent his early days on the farm, but in 1880 his father, Caleb B. Saylor, sold his farm on the Front of Sidney, and removed to Trenton, where he opened a general store and ran it successfully for about five years, when he retired from active business, being succeeded by Charles W. Saylor, who since then has more than quadrupled the stock, including groceries, crockery, house furnishings, furniture, etc. in a store 128 x (illegible) feet,.

"Besides this, Mr. Saylor has one of the most attractive stocks of the same kind in Frankford, where he carries a large stock of goods. The Saylor stores are popular throughout the district and Mr. Saylor is one of the leading merchants of Trenton and Frankford. He has been a member of the Trenton council for a number of years. He is independent in politics, but takes and intelligent and prominent part in public affairs."
