Version 1.5

Generation One

1. Isaac Ostrander #83223, b. in Albany?, New York State.¹ .

From Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904:

The Ostrander Family

"The Ostrandrs had settled in the territory now known as the United States, long before the War of Independence. Their name and unmistakable racial characteristics declare their Teutonic origin, and to that race Canada owes much already, and the debt is being increased yearly by a continued stream of immigration into our great Northwest. It is found in our cities mingling with the best of our mechanical and manufacturers, and in the country, it has no superior in well-directed industry and economy.

"The family were loyal to the British Crown during the American Revolution; and our pioneer came to Canada in 1796, from near Albany, N.Y., and located in Prince Edward County. He brought with him two sons, Samuel and Isaac, both of whom settled in South Marysburg. Samuel married twice and each time into one of the oldest and best families in the county. He married first Isabella Collier, and second Mrs. Wright, nee Nancy Roblin.

"By his first wife Samuel Ostrander had nine, and by his second wife eight children, making seventeen in all; so that his descendants are already very numerous in Prince Edward County. His son, Rodman, received his name from his mother's side of the house, it being a name that occurs frequently in the Roblin family. For example, it is borne today by Premier Roblin, of Manitoba.

"Rodman Ostrander was very prominent in his day, taking an active part in military affairs. He saw active service during the Fenian Raid, serving as a lieutenant with Colonel Bog and Lieut. Donald Ross, and eventually rose to the rank of captain. He received a medal which is now in possession of his daughter Alma, wife of Rev. A.B. Minaker. He was also entitled to his grant of land, but died before the allotment could be made.

"His son Walter A. Ostrander is a prosperous and progressive farmer, who owns and occupies the old homestead. He has also taken no little interest in military matters, and having been gazetted lieutenant he was for some time in command of his company, and would have been promoted to the rank of captain had he not resigned from the service on account of ill-health. He married Eva M. Rose, of the well-known pioneer Rose family."

Note that there was an "Isaac OSTRANDER" family that settled in Thorold Township, Welland County, Ontario.

He married Sarah Harrington #83224, in New York State.¹

From the genealogy compiled by Murray Clapp, at the Marilyn Adams Genealogical Research Centre, Ameliasburgh:

"A.C. Dulmage, during his life was known to friends as "A.C", and to the family as "Crit". He was a big dapper gentleman who was always dressed neatly and wore a derby hat. A.C. could be considered one of the last "gentleman farmers", who were content to plan operations on the farm, but a bit reluctant to soil his own hands. A.C. travelled in the upper circles of society. One year he shipped his apple crop to England under his personal attendance and charter. He returned with British products, a pure-bred bull, and quantities of imported beer, ale, and cognac. Likely any profits from the apple sales were eroded by the extravagance. A.C. used to get oysters by the barrel imported, and with his Picton society friends, consume them, washed down by Montreal beer.

"When A.C. was older (and deeper in debt), he offered the farm to his sons, free, provided they pay off the debts and mortgage. None of the boys were interested on any condition. Phil Farrington and Frances (Dulmage) spent some of their first years of marriage as the lighthouse keepers on False Ducks Island or Swetman Island (1891-94). A.C. offered Phil the old farm on the above conditions and Phil accepted the burden.

"Phil was a slave to work and in a reasonably short time had the farm mortgage paid off and made considerable improvements on the farm and bought more adjacent lands; the Gibson place (across the road), the Cooper place (on lake front), the Lobb place (on Royal Street), etc."

Mason Valley News (Yerington, Nevada), 14 July 1950

"Thomas Walmsley Dies Tuesday when Struck by Car.

"Tom Walmsley was instantly killed Tuesday a few minutes before noon when struck by a car on the highway just north of McLeod Hill. The car was driven by Arthur Poli of San Francisco, who was here visiting his brother Felice, and friends. Mr. Poli's daughter Linda, was riding in the car at the time and received minor injuries.

"The accident occurred as the car was being driven north on the Yerington-Wanuska highway. Tom was walking along the highway in the same direction. From tire skid marks on the pavement, it appears that the car swerved to the left and following the impact, came to rest on its side against the fence and in the hollow adjacent to the highway. Edwin Walmsley, brother of Tom, who had stopped at the Wm. Sauter farm was one of the first to arrive at the scene of the tragedy. Dr. Stanley Tebbe was immediately notified and Sheriff Claude Keema and Deputy Harold Morgan remained at the scene for two hours. The body was brought to Yerington by the Freitas ambulance.

"The tragedy came as a shock to the community, where Tom was held in high regard by everyone. Funeral services will be held at the V.F.W. hall today, Friday, at two o'clock.

"Thomas G. Walmsley was born in Dayton on November 7, 1886, a member of the pioneer western Nevada family. His parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Andrew Walmsley were among the early day settlers of Dayton. When twelve years of age, he moved to California, where he remained until he was 19. On his return to Dayton, he engaged in mining and became cook and manager of the J.H. Rae boarding house at Como.

"On December 9, 1924, he married Miss Mayme Williams, of a prominent early-day Mason valley family. The ceremony was performed at the Methodist church here. In 1925 the couple entered the farming business on part of the Williams holdings in the Gallagher district. The couple successfully engaged in farming until 1946 when they sold, and purchased a home in Yerington. Since then Tom served as secretary of the Farm Bureau and Hay Growers and engaged in the insurance business,

"His death takes from the community, a man of high ideals and moral character. He was a student of the bible and a believer in its teachings. His death is a loss to the community.

"Surviving are his widow Mayme, two brothers, Zenas of Dayton and Edwin of Yerington, four nieces, Mrs. Ed Williams of Silver City, Mrs. Charles Hill of Carson City, Mrs. Charles Jasper of Sacramento, Maxine Walmsley of Yerington and three nephews, Jimmie Borge of Yerington, Thomas Walmsley of Reno, Raymond of Silver City and Harland now with the army in Alaska."

"Francis Thomas Welbanks, of Amherst Island, died in Kingston General Hospital on Nov. 13, 1991 after a two-month illness. He was 81. He was born in Brighton, Ont., a son of Anna Beatrice Fritz and Elburn Welbanks, and attended public school in Prince Edward County. He later moved to Amherst Island where he went to high school and continued in the fishing business with his father. He worked briefly as a miner in the Sudbury area. Mr. Welbanks married Nessie Eleanor Glenn in 1937 and in 1949 they began farming dairy and later beef cattle on the south shore farm which has been the family home ever since. He served as councillor on the island from 1938 to 1945, when he became Township Clerk, a post he held for 30 years. He retired from commercial fishing in 1980 because of ill health. He was interested in history, particularly marine history and the history of Great Lakes boats, and served as a source of information for several authors and historians. Some of his memories appeared in Booze, Boats and Billows. He was a longtime member and past master of the Maple Leaf Masonic Lodge No. 119 in Bath, past grand steward of the Grand Lodge of Canada and a 32nd degree Scottish Rite Mason, as well as a Shriner. He was a member and trustee of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. He is survived by sons Eric Francis and wife Linda (Hicks), of Nicholson's Point, and Theodore (Ted) Harold and wife Heather (Sedore), of Amherst Island; grandchildren Susanne, Cheryl, Shawn, John and Rick; sister Irene Glenn and brother Howard, both of Amherst Island. He was predeceased by infant son Glenn Elburn. The funeral on Nov. 16 was conducted by Rev. Lindsay McIntyre. The pallbearers were Avery Brown, Melville Filson, Keith Miller, Allan Caughey, Ted Wemp and Eric Miller. Interment was at Glenwood Cemetery, Amherst Island. "
