Marvel:

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; The Garrison Family, pages 362 - 365

"Marvel Garrison was the founder of this family in Upper Canada. We can at best only give his birthplace as somewhere on the Hudson, but his name was destined to become historic, as he came to Canada with Major VanAlstine's party, and married Mary Roblin, daughter of John Roblin, who was also a member of the expedition. This fixes the date of his arrival at Adolphustown as June 16, 1784. He was among those who suffered heavy material loss through espousing the British cause in the Revolution. The confiscated property of the family was extensive and valuable, being rated so high as to place the owners in a position not only of solid comfort, but even of opulence. On his arrival to Canada he selected upwards of four hundred acres of bush land in Adolphustown, which he lost no time in reducing to agricultural uses. His older sons were of an age to help him from the beginning; and, before many years had gone by, a large part of the property had been cleared and placed under cultivation, and a substantial dwelling, flanked by spacious outbuildings, erected. But the Pioneer was not yet satisfied; if there was a niche to be filled within the radius of his supervision, he was not the man to see it empty. A hotel was needed to meet the requirements of the district, and this too he built, and it became a widely known and favorite hostelry for years to come. But his fund of energy was not yet exhausted. The campaigns of the war suggested to the Imperial Government the necessity of a connection between Lake Ontario and Montreal other than the St. Lawrence, and in 1827 the Rideau Canal was projected and the work begun. Marvel Garrison during the whole time of construction was engaged upon it as a contractor, and so managed as to clear a large amount of money. The canal completed, he concentrated his energy at his home on Hay Bay, carrying on farming operations on a more extensive scale, and later became proprietor of the flour and saw mills at Milford. During his lifetime he bestowed farms upon his sons, so that at his death, which occurred in 1857, he could look round and see them all (with the exception of those who went to the United States) comfortably settled within easy travelling reach of the old homestead. He was eighty-four years of age when he died; his wife had died in 1849, being then in her seventieth year.

"Marvel Garrison did credit to himself, to his ancestry, and to the noble band of United Empire Loyalists with whom he helped to create Ontario. He did not concern himself much with the politics of his time; his hands were occupied with the work that taxed to the full his untiring energy and remarkable business capacity. He was noted for keeping the finest bred horses of the district, and did much by example and advice to give to both the horses and the stock of the county the high place which is theirs to-day.

"Marvel Garrison's daughter, Rhoda, married James Dulmage, and Mary Garrison, a granddaughter, married Peter Empey, thus establishing a connection with two good families of German descent in the county. Mary A. Dulmage, granddaughter of the Pioneer, married Murney Ackerman, a descendant of Edward Ackerman. Lewis Garrison, a grandson, married Almira C. Palen, of the well-known Palen family, and settled in Athol."

William:

1851: Family lived in Sidney Township, Hastings County, Ontario.

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; pages 1-12

"Official documents state that William Ketcheson, the pioneer of the family in Canada, "served his Majesty during the whole of the Revolutionary war." When the War of 1812 broke out, William, the eldest of his family, went to his brother Thomas who was cutting underbrush on lot fifteen in the fifth concession, of Sidney, and told him to drop the bushhook and get his musket. Four of the brothers went to Kingston and served during the War. Elijah, the youngest, although only seventeen years old was promoted to sergeant's rank. The family still retains an old pass which read;

"Permit the bearer, Sergt. Ketcheson, to pass on his way to the County of Hastings, he being in pursuit of a deserter. Kingston, 20th November, 1913. (Signed) J. McNabb, Capt., Hastings Militia."

"Sergt. Elijah Ketcheson found further promotion, for another document reads:

"These are to certify that Ensign Ketcheson of the First Regiment, Hastings Militia, is the son of William Ketcheson, who served His Majesty during the whole of the Revolutionary War; and that the said Elijah Ketcheson served during the whole of the late American War, at Kingston."

"This certificate is dated at Kingston, on the 11th May 1817, and is signed by John Ferguson Commanding First Regiment Hastings Militia. When the Fourth Regiment of Hastings Militia was organized in 1838, Ensign Elijah Ketcheson was promoted to a Captaincy, and ten years later was appointed Lieut.-Colonel in command of the Second Battalion. At the beginning of the War of 1812, Thomas and Benjamin Ketcheson were enrolled as Sergeants in the 1st Hastings Flank Company. While William and Thomas were Captains in 1839 in the Hastings Regiment, their brothers Elijah and James were Lieutenants. William Ketcheson, in 1838, was promoted to the Colonelcy of the Fourth Hastings Militia. His son, George M. Ketcheson, subsequently commanded a company in the old regiment; and now his grandson, William Gilbert Ketcheson, is Captain of No. 3 Company of the Hastings Rifles. Other sons of the old Colonel, Owen R., Philip, Henry and George M, also held commissions, and served in the Rebellion of 1837-8. Besides, there is also in the same regiment a grandson of Lieut.-Colonel Elijah Ketcheson, Captain William H. Ketcheson, who commands No. 5 Company; Charles Ketcheson, a son of Thomas, at one time also held a Captaincy in the Hastings Militia."

Historical Atlas of Hastings and Prince Edward Counties, 1878; H. Belden & Co., Toronto.

"Col. William Ketcheson was born in the town of Bedford, New York, in the year 1772 (Pioneer Life suggests 1782) , and was of English descent. He came to Adolphustown from Nova Scotia, and married Nancy Roblin in the year 1800, removing to Sidney shortly afterwards, and locating and settling on lot 26, in the 5th concession, which he cleared. He reared a family of fifteen children, nine sons and six daughters, all of whom eventually became united with the Church, and these all married before death entered the family. There were living at his death - which occurred March 15, 1848 - eighty-four grand-children, one hundred and thirty-seven great-grand-children, and five great-great-grand-children. Total, two hundred and forty-one descendants.

"The ancestors of Col. William Ketcheson saw service in Lord Cornwallis' army during the Revolutionary War, and were engaged in the many battles fought under that general. in the reign of George III, William Ketcheson held the commission of Acting Ensign under Lieut. Sturgeon, who commanded the Hastings Militia, and in 1809 received from Sir Francis Gore a commission of Full Ensign, in 1812 a Lieutenancy, in 1815, under Gen. Brock, he was commissioned as Captain, and in 1832 Major from Sir John Colborne's government. Serving under Col. Thomas Coleman in 1834, during Sir Francis Bond Head's administration, he became a joint commissioner of the 11th division of the Court of Requests.

"In the first year of Queen Victoria's reign he was honoured with a Colonelcy, a title which he wore with honour until the day of his death. in 1839 he received his commission as a Justice of the Peace in the 2nd division of the Court of Requests. in all these positions he discharged their several duties with credit to himself and advantage to his country. Mr. Ketcheson and his amiable wife were consistent members of the Canada Methodist Church, having been converted at the first camp meeting ever held in Canada, at Adolphustown.

"Of commanding presence, with a vigorous mind, his judgment was good - possessing quick perceptions, he was self-reliant. He possessed the confidence of his neighbours and of the community at large. As a citizen, he was loyal to the core, and a staunch supporter of the Government. Possessed of that modesty that ever command respect, he never forced himself upon the people as a claimant for public honours, though he served the township in several capacities. He was ever governed by a conscientious regard for his word and his obligations, possessing such a love for his family and regard for his friends that he ever laboured for their enjoyment."

George:

The DREWRY Family

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, pp 295 - 297

"George, the eldest of the family, who elected to remain in Prince Edward, had been well educated in England and qualified as a school teacher. He engaged in school teaching in Sophiasburgh, for about three years, and then purchased a bush farm on the 2nd concession of Sophiasburgh. After clearing a portion of his farm, and building the orthodox pioneer dwelling, he married Mis Kezia Roblin, daughter of Philip Roblin. In his career as an early settler, he escaped none of the vicissitudes and hardships incident to the times; but the unremitting industry which characterized him, as well as the average early settler, in the end rewarded him with a fruitful farm and a comfortable home, and he found himself among those successful pioneers , who were rated as "well off."

"His son Philip, eventually succeeded to this property, and he with his son, Wallace, now occupy this old homestead, which is one of the landmarks of the neighborhood's first settlement.

"In later years, some years after his wife had died, George Drewry, the son of the Canadian founder of the family, bought a property in Brighton village, Northumberland County, and thither he removed until his death in 1885. He often recounted his early hardships as a pioneer, when the nearest grist mill was at Kingston, and the wolves and bears were numerous and fierce. In the public affairs of his community, George Drewry was always interested; he subscribed to the best principles of the Reform party, and invariably advocated and supported them. For many years he held the commission of Justice of the Peace, and as such, was known for his calm and temperate judgement. Although reared in the faith of the Established Church of England, he was broad and liberal in his views concerning other denominations, and in later life, if he showed and marked preference, it was to the Methodist Church, which he frequently assisted and also attended."

The Flagler Family

"Like many Dutch families that have won for themselves places of competence and distinction in the New World, first in the United States, and subsequently in Canada, the Flagler family is prominent.

"The pioneer of the Flagler family in Prince Edward County - Thomas Flagler - may have been born on Canadian soil; at any rate it was at about the time of his birth that his parents came to Adolphustown from Dutchess County. His daughter, Mrs. A.P. Cameron, of Hillier, says her grandparents were among the earliest of the U.E. Loyalists to settle in Adolphustown.

"Thomas grew up and lived in or near Adolphustown for a number of years, when he crossed the Bay and located on lot 12 of the third concession of Hillier, early in the nineteenth century, now owned and occupied by Benjamin Ferguson. He had previously married Nancy Roblin (b. April 30, 1795). They were married May 16, 1814, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert N. MacDonald, at Adolphustown, in the presence of John Canniff and Catherine Flagler, who signed the marriage certificate, which is now in the possession of his granddaughter, Mrs. C.S. Thorn.

"Flagler, having already had experience of pioneer life, soon showed up among the new brother settlers in Hillier as one of the best among them and worthily maintained the prestige of his nation as a competent and progressive farmer. Many years had not passed before his farm was cleared of much of its heavy timber, which he shrewdly allowed a portion of it to stand. There was on the part of some early settlers a ruthless and sweeping destruction of forest that showed little foresight, so that in parts of the county to-day the land has been denuded not only of a great natural beauty, but their successors find themselves deprived of a valuable asset. The cleared land became well-fenced, cultivated fields; the original log house disappeared, and a pile of slightly farm buildings took its place. The large frame house, the barn and other buildings are still in a good state of preservation.

"Here our pioneer's family of eight children were born - five sons and three daughters - Esther A., March 16, 1815; Philip, September 22, 1816; John R., January 5, 1819; George D., October 18, 1820; Solomon, May 1, 1823; Jane E., January 24, 1825; Catherine, September 26, 1826; Stephen N., May 6 1835. Here he lived for about twenty-five years, farming and blacksmithing, the latter having been his original trade, when he removed to what was then known as Pleasant Valley, now Hillier, where he bought a farm, which was afterwards sold to Matthew Arthur, and eventually to Stephen Nease, the present occupant. A shop was built in which his son John R. carried on the trade which he had learned from his father. The farm was already of considerable account in the neighbourhood, and remains to-day practically as it was purchased.

"In the meantime his family was getting married and settling in homes of their own, until Jane E. only remained with her parents. As Thomas Flagler and his wife were growing old he seems to have considered they were entitled to spend the evening tide of life in quiet and rest; and sold his property and came to live first in the village and then in Brighton, where he purchased a residence. He died in 1872, his wife nee Nancy Roblin, preceding him by four months.

"Thomas Flagler adhered in the main to the Conservative party in politics; in religion he was a member of the Society of Friends.

"Just one of his children lived to-day (1904), to-wit, Jane E. Flagler, who married Aaron P. Cameron. The Camerons are a noted Scotch family who emigrated at a very early period to Lower Canada. Aaron P.'s father, George Cameron, married for his second wife, Phoebe Pierson, widow of Aaron Pierson, brother of Col. James Pierson, by whom he had Aaron P., who married Jane E. Flagler. The old home of George Cameron, so widely known and respected in Prince Edward County, is still occupied by a Cameron, Mrs. S.C. Thorn (Minda J. Cameron), a daughter of Aaron P., who, with her husband, C.S. Thorn, her son, Harry C., and her mother form the household."

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; pages 1-12:

"There is another Ketcheson to be numbered among the pioneers of Huntingdon. The later Owen R. Ketcheson, who was a son of Colonel William, settled in that back township in 1830. He was a Magistrate there for fifty years and a road surveyor for forty. Out of his prosperity he bequeathed one hundred acres to each of his sons, and gave his daughters due money considerations. Owing to the backward and primitive state of life in the early days of Huntingdon's settlement, Owen R. Ketcheson joined with his neighbours and employed a teacher who taught school for nine months in their waggon-house and two winters in their house. Elias Ketcheson, son of Owen R., attended school two weeks only after he reached ten years of age. His ambition and good mind made him educate himself. The result is that he is a well posted man in business matters and current topics. He served as his father's bailiff for nine years. He is now a leading citizen, farming 200 acres on the fifth concession of Sidney, where he moved many years ago. He has been a School Trustee for sixteen, and Secretary and Treasurer for twelve years. For many years he has performed the onerous duties of Treasurer of the Presbyterian Church. He is a director of the West Hastings Agricultural Society, a good Templar and a Conservative. Most of the members of his family settled in the North West, but his second son, Clement H. Ketcheson, resides on the old home. He is an up-to-date farmer who graduated at the Belleville Business College, and is one of the rising young men of Sidney."

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904, page 5.

"His daughter Gatrey is the subject of a well-known incident that happened when she was a child five years old. The family was living in the fifth concession of Sidney, and the child was sent on an errand to the house of a neighbour, Duncan Irvine, some miles distant. The forest intervened, and when darkness approached and she had not returned, the parents became alarmed. As it was evident that Gatrey had wandered from the trail and was lost, the two families instituted a search. Several Indian scouts and hunters were engaged, and for miles around the woods were searched; but the night was dark, and, to add to the difficulty, a storm of rain and hail set in. On Monday every settler and brave in the neighborhood turned out to assist; on Tuesday, the searchers had increased to three hundred. They shouted, fired guns, and looked in every hole and brush heap; caves of bears and other wild animals were searched. On Friday, Indian runners were sent up and down the Bay to call for help to find the body, as it was supposed by then that the child must be dead. The force increased to five hundred. They organized into squads and scoured the forest in every direction, but their efforts were unavailing until, just as they were about to abandon the search, the child was found alive. The joyful news was proclaimed by shouts that made the forest ring with the glad acclaim. Gatrey had wandered eight days in the forest, and had subsisted on wintergreens. The nights were cold and she was barefooted and thinly clad. One night an animal of some kind lay upon her cold feet, and lest it might kill her, she was afraid to stir. Just before she was found, she had lain down to die, having previously repeated a verse she had learned of her prayers. She was reduced to a skeleton, and it was some time before she recovered from the terrible experience. For months she shrank with terror at the approach of darkness; but in time the baneful effects of her eight day's exposure to October weather in a Canadian forest passed away, and she grew into strong and vigorous womanhood."

"One of the most hospitable homes in Sydney is the substantial house of George M. Ketcheson, who is a son of Colonel William Ketcheson and grandson of the older pioneer. It is a home that everywhere bears evidences of comfort and plenty, and where the host and hostess entertain in the old fashioned hospitable way. While its owner received 300 acres from his father, he has increased his holdings, until now he possesses 560 acres. George M. Ketcheson, like his father, is a good Methodist and a staunch Conservative. His family are detailed in the appended genealogy: Thomas, the oldest, is one of the leading men of Sidney; he is President of the Township of Sidney Conservative Association, Vice-President of the West Hastings Liberal Conservative Association for Dominion purposes, President of the Sidney Town Hall Cheese and Butter Co., and Vice-President of the Belleville Cheese Board. He is an enthusiastic sportsman, a crack shot and an expert fisherman. Although only eighteen years of age, his son Howard is a Sergeant in the Hastings Rifles. Captain William G. Ketcheson, namesake of his father, attended the Royal Canadian Infantry School, Toronto and is very popular in military circles. An enthusiast in all matters military, he joined the militia in 1886, got his commission the following year, and has lately received his company. His brother Daniel is a man of attractive personality, who is justly popular. He pursued a commercial course at the Ontario Business College, Belleville, and has since travelled extensively. Bleeker Ketcheson, the youngest son in this family, is a typical young Canadian farmer, intelligent, energetic and ambitious."

The DREWRY Family

" His son, Charles Drewry, who married Sarah Dempsey, owned a grist mill near Roblin's Mills, which he conducted for some years, when he sold out and moved to Colborne. Here he carried on a flour mill, and built and operated a new grist mill. He was a millwright, as well as a miller, and with his brother built a number of mills throughout the counties of Hastings and Northumberland. He led a busy and active life, and in addition to his private business, he was clerk of the Council in Ameliasburgh, issuer of marriage licenses and Justice of the Peace. After removing to Colborne, he served in the Town Council and upon the School Board, and also upon the Trustee Board of the Methodist Church, of which church he was a devoted member, being Superintendent of the Sunday School. His political affiliations were with the Liberal party.

"Mr. Drewry died in 1897, and his widow still survives him. Their son, George Drewry, B.A., was educated at the Public and High Schools of Colborne. He then matriculated at Victoria University with the degree of B.A. in 1890.

"He later taught school for a short time, and studied law with the eminent firm of Clute, McDonald and McCrimmon. He was called to the Bar in 1895 and enrolled as a barrister and solicitor. He at once began a the practice of law at Colborne, and has long enjoyed a large and lucrative practice, attracting substantially all the legal business of Colborne and the surrounding country."

William:

Canadian Biographical Dictionary shows birthdate of 17 APR 1836...

"William Henry Richey ALLISON, a prominent barrister in the county of Prince Edward and a surrogate judge of the Maritime Court of Ontario, was born near Brockville, on April 17, 1836. His father, Rev. Cyrus R. Allison, a noted Wesleyan Minister, was also a native of this Province, preached for many years in the vicinity of the Bay of Quinte, and died at Picton, in 1869. The mother of our subject was Eve Hoover, also a native of Ontario, and the daughter of a United Empire Loyalist. She is still living.

"Mr. Allison was educated at Victoria College, Cobourg; studied law with Philip Low, Q.C., of Picton; was called to the Bar at Michaelmas term, 1864, and from that date has been in constant practice in this town. He does business in all the courts, and his standing is second to that of no lawyer in the county. He is well read; prepares his case with great care; is painstaking in all his legal work, and has great influence with a jury, being clear, argumentative, forcible and persuasive. His success at the Bar has been quite mote-worthy.

"Mr. Allison was in the town council many years; was one of the first directors of the Prince Edward railway, which was opened from Picton to Trenton in 1879; is one of the trustees of the public schools, and was appointed a surrogate judge of the Maritime Court of Ontario in 1879.

"His political proclivities are to the Reform side, and at times, during an animated canvass he has done "yeoman service" for his party on the "stump."

"He is an Odd Fellow, being a member of the Grand Lodge of Ontario; and is also a member of the Methodist church of Canada.

"In September, 1861, Mr. Allison was united in marriage with Miss Anna M., daughter of John P. Roblin, deceased, late registrar of Prince Edward county, and for many years a member of Parliament, and they have one son, Malcolm Roblin, who is pursuing his studies in the local schools.

"The father-in-law of our subject mentioned above, was one of those bold spirits who fought the battle for "Responsible Government" in Parliament, and broke up the so-called "Family Compact." His memory is cherished very sacredly in Picton and the county of Prince Edward."

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; pages 1-12:

"The Ketchesons are not only well born, but as a rule they married well and there is hardly a family of note in the Bay of Quinte region that is not connected by marriage with this vigorous pioneer stock. Amey Ann, daughter of Philip and granddaughter of Colonel William Ketcheson, married John Newton on the 14th of March 1849. He was the son of Rev. Richard Newton, who was born in the county of Durham, England, in 1772. He was for many years the pastor of an Independent Church in Ireland and thus met and married Elizabeth, daughter of John and Jane Anderson. She was a native of Sligo County, Sligo, Ireland and the family record hereafter referred shows that her parents were married on the 24th day of May, 1763. She was married to Rev. Richard Newton, November 11th, 1801, and bore him eleven children. Of these three sons and six daughters, to wit, Jane, Sarah, Elizabeth, Ann, John Mary, Thomas, Margaret and Richard after her death accompanied their father to Canada in 1831. The family settled in the County of Hastings, Rev. Richard Newton purchasing Lot 20, Third Concession of Huntingdon, where he resided until his death, which occurred on the 8th day of March, 1842."

Family lived in Hungerford Township.

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; pages 1-12:

"His son, John Newton, settled upon Lot 5, Concession 8, township of Hungerford. He was born April 8th, 1811, and on March 14th, 1849, married Amy Ann, daughter of Philip Ketcheson. He was evidently a man of no little cultivation, and his descendants preserve with pardonable pride the family record written by him in a clear clerkly hand at the age of seventy-two. His wife died November 17th, 1870; he survived her more than twenty years, departing this life September 25th, 1892.

1931: Couple lived at Lot 11, Con, 1 Sidney Township, Hastings County, Ontario

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; pages 1-12:

"Two successful, scientific farmers who each raise as much crop per acre as any other man in the county are Manchester and Selden T. Ketcheson, sons of John Vandewater Ketcheson and great-grand-sons of the pioneer loyalist, William. Born and educated in Thurlow, they are both married and are respected as good citizens. Manchester Ketcheson, the elder of the two, belongs to the Methodist Church, to which he contributes liberally, not alone to its moral, but also to its financial needs. He is a Bible class teacher who takes charge in the absence of the Sunday School Superintendent. A man of good executive ability, he farms his one hundred and fifty acres in a model manner. He is a Liberal who as a citizen ranks among the best in the county. The younger brother, Selden T. Ketcheson, has been for many years trustee of the old White's Methodist Church. His wife, before her marriage was organist in the church at Ernesttown, and since her marriage she has acted in the same capacity in her husband's church. On the two hundred and fifteen acres he owns in the second concession he has always had on hand ten to a dozen Clydesdale horses ready to the buyer. As a Liberal, he takes much interest in politics. He is a member of the Lodge 81, I.O.O.F., Belleville."
