Vincent:

Extracted from MAGRC GEN-BOW-001-2, Merton Yarwood Williams, Bowerman Genealogy

"Nursed and cared for by kind neighbours, Daniel and Elizabeth Pettit (who used a sap trough hewn from a bass-wood log for a cradle), Vincent was two years of age when his father brought home his step-mother, Maturah Bull, from the ancestral home, Dutchess County, N.Y. She proved a true mother and as her own children were born, Vincent became the eldest of a large family.

"Vincent went to school "when there was school" until he was able to work.

" I being the eldest, Father having no other help, I was put to it pretty young. I do not think I ploughed any until 13 or 14. Father built the new house in the year 1806 and I was 15 that summer. The winter before, I helped cut and saw logs ... Samuel Clapp ... and I cut and helped load about 100. Father drew them to ... Uncle Ichabod's sawmill... The next summer I drew stone to stone the cellar and burn lime and tend mason, I was 15 that spring. I do not think I went to school any except a little in the winter when I was 12 years old. After I was 16 Father generally kept a hired man and I worked with him most of the time. In the summer of 1809, I helped chop and clear 18 acres of new land and it was all sowed with wheat that Fall. After the sowing was done... they sent the men away to the River Trent and that was the beginning of the Lumber scrape... Father managed to get his spring crop in before the raft went away, then I was left home with a young man... to work the farm and take care of the hay and harvest... with another man to help us and I think we hired some more, we got the hay and wheat all in good season and in good condition, summer-fallowed and sowed I think about 20 acres with wheat."

"After the death of Thomas Bowerman in Kingston on August 28th 1810 while returning from his lumber venture in Quebec, Vincent shared fully the responsibility of the family with his step-mother. Thomas' brother, Gideon, also engaged in the lumber trade, came home late in the autumn and fell ill with fever which he contracted in Quebec. All winter long the epidemic lasted. Vincent lost an aunt, his sister Phoebe, and many died in the community. Vincent nursed the sick, even sleeping in the same room with his Uncle Gideon, who finally died at the home of his brother Stephen. Vincent survived and helped in the oversight of nine half-brothers and sisters and 1430 acres of land."

MAGRC, GEN-BOW-001-2, Merton Yarwood Williams, (page 33),

"in the winter of 1895-6 Grandfather Williams, aided by Grandfather Bowerman, built a camp and boat-house on the Sand Bank shore midway between Wellington and West Point. This camp gave access to both Lake Ontario and West Lake and provided a retreat for Grandfather Williams where he indulged in his hobby of net fishing. It was greatly enjoyed also by his grandsons on holidays. The camp was only accessible (except at very low water) by a five mile row through the length of West Lake from the mouth of Trout Creek. This boat ride was in itself an adventure, especially when against the prevailing westerly winds."
