Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, The Aylsworth Family; (pages 119 - 12*

"Two branches of the Aylsworth family are settled in the Bay of Quinte district; one in the county of Lennox and Addington, the other in the county of Prince Edward. The Lennox and Addington branch are descended from Job Aylsworth, who emigrated from Rhode Island, in 1784, and settled on lot 11, in the second concession of Ernestown, immediately in the rear of the village of Bath, where he, his wife and three children died in 1803, during the prevalence of an epidemic of "spotted fever" or cerebro-spinal meningitis.

"He was a man of resolute character. Having a distressing felon (sic), and being unable to obtain medical assistance in the sparsely settled condition of the country at that time, he himself cut off the affected finger with a chisel and mallet. He was born on 1730, in Quidnessett, R.I., and was the grandson of Arthur Aylsworth, who came there from England, about 1670.

"Of the history of the family in England but little is known among their descendants here. It is a matter of tradition that Arthur Aylsworth, the Rhode Island Pioneer, had been a soldier under Cromwell, and on that account left England after the Restoration. An inscription on a stone in New College, Oxford, records the death on 18th April, 1619, of one Anthony Aylsworth, Regius Professor in the College, under Queen Elizabeth, for some fifteen years, and stated by the inscription to have been "descended from an eminent and ancient family in Gloucestershire."

"Generosa at antiqua familia in commit, Glocstr oriundus."

"Job Aylsworth, who settled in Ernestown, was the father of three sons, who came to man's estate, and of four daughters. Of the daughters, two married and lived in Ernestown; one, Elsie, married John Bristol, who had also emigrated from Rhode Island, and from this marriage is descended a large family settled in Ernestown, Fredericksburgh and in the county of Prince Edward. Another daughter Elizabeth, married Morris Brisco, who lived on lot one, in the third concession of Ernestown, where their descendants still reside

"Of the sons of Job Aylsworth, the best known was the youngest, Bowen, who was about ten years of age when his parents came to Canada. He married, November 21st, 1797, Hannah, daughter of Robert Perry of Ernestown and sister of Peter Perry, who afterwards, along with Marshall S. Bidwell, represented the county in Parliament, from 1824 to 1836.

"Bowen Aylsworth upon his marriage, settled on lot number 10, in the third concession of Ernestown, where his grandson Bowen E. Aylsworth, ex-M.P.P. for Lennox, now resides. Their family consisted of nine sons and four daughters, all of whom married and had families, so that at the time of the death of Bowen Aylsworth, in 1863, his living children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were over two hundred in number.

"Of his sons, Job, David, Robert, Daniel and Isaac may be mentioned:

"David Aylsworth, son of Bowen, resided all his life in the township of Ernestown, and was the father of sixteen children, one of whom is Bowen E. Aylsworth, late M.P.P. for the county. Robert Aylsworth, son of Bowen, was a farmer, township clerk for many years, and a local preacher in the Methodist Church, living in the township of Ernestown, near the village of Odessa.

"Of his sons, the eldest is Rev. David W. Aylsworth, a member of the Northern Conference, in the State of New York, and another is the Rev. Isaac B. Aylsworth, now stationed at Sarnia as a clergyman of the Methodist Church in Canada.

Another son of Bowen Aylsworth, Daniel, removed to the township of Dorchester in the county of Middlesex, where, after serving many years as clerk of the township, he died in 1902. Dr. Isaac Brock Aylsworth, son of Bowen, practiced medicine for many years in the county of Lennox and Addington, and afterwards became a travelling minister of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, finally settling in Collingwood as a retired physician and minister. His son, George M. Aylsworth, is a practicing physician in Collingwood at the present time.

"Job Aylsworth was a farmer and Justice of the Peace, who lived in the township of Camden, near the village of Newburgh, and died there on the 7th August, 1888. One of his sons, John B. Aylsworth, still lived upon the same farm. He is the father of Allen Bristol Aylsworth, K.C., of Toronto. Another son of Job Aylsworth is William R. Aylsworth, of Belleville, present Clerk of the county of Hastings. He was educated at the Newburgh Grammar School, and received a certificate as a school teacher at the early age of seventeen. He taught but a few months, having determined to adopt the profession of a land surveyor. At the age of twenty, he passed the preliminary examination as a student of this profession, and in 1858, we find him attending a course of lectures upon mineralogy and geology, by Professor Chapman of the University of Toronto. He served a three year apprenticeship with Aylsworth, Bowen & Parry, and in 1861, was licensed as a Provincial Land Surveyor. During the five years next ensuing, he was busily engaged at his profession, in public service and private employment; but in 1866, he accepted an appointment as a surveyor, engineer and confidential agent to the Rathbun Company at Deseronto, a position which he retained until 1891. He is at present County Clerk of the county of Hastings, having been appointed in 1893. He is also agent for the Mohawk Indians of the Bay of Quinte, and an appraiser for the Dominion Government.

"In 1871, he was elected Reeve of the village of Mill Point, in Tyendinaga, and for twenty years was Reeve and member of the county council of Hastings. In 1878, he contested the riding of East Hastings. Being counted out on a technicality he unseated his opponent, John White, but did not stand for re-election. In 1892, he contested East Hastings as a Liberal candidate against W.P. Northrup, K.C., M.P., the present member. Mr. Aylsworth is a member of the Methodist Church, and is also a Mason, a member of the A.O.U.W. (Belleville Lodge), and was chairman of the Board of Trustees at Deseronto, eighteen years. Allen Bristol Aylsworth, K.C., is well known throughout the Dominion. He ranks among the leading barristers of Ontario, and his public services include his commendable service as one of the arbitrators chosen by the Canadian government in determining the Alaskan award."

He married Sarah Aylsworth #132455, 26 March 1765 in Rhode Island,⁵ b. c. 11 November 1746 in Rhode Island,⁴ (daughter of Philip Aylsworth #258041 and Elizabeth Jordan #258042), d. 26 November 1803 in Ernestown Township, Lennox and Addington, Ontario,³ buried in Violet Cemetery, Violet, Lennox and Addington, Ontario.⁴

John:

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1905; The Bristol Family, (pages 162 - 164)

"John Bristol, the progenitor of the Bristol family of Prince Edward County, was born near Albany, N.Y., where he married Alice Aylesworth. Soon after the Revolutionary War, he removed to Ernesttown (sic), near Bath, where he reared a family amongst whom were John, Coleman, Benjamin, Norris and Joel.

"About 1819, Benjamin Bristol settled one mile east of Picton, on the premises now occupied by Almon Bristol, his son, and here established a tannery, one of the first, if not the first in the County. He married Ruth Spencer, a daughter of the pioneer Corey Spencer, and the issue of this union were: Almon, Eliza A., Matilda and Catherine.

"Almon Bristol, the eldest of these children, and the founder of the well known dry goods establishment of A. Bristol & Son, Picton, has for fifty years stood prominently before the people of the Bay district. Born 6th September, 1820, on the property now owned and occupied by him as a residence, Almon Bristol, in his boyhood, worked in his father's tannery, and also attended school in Picton, in the building where now stands the public school. At the age of eighteen he was sent to Whitesboro' Institute, which was three miles west of Utica, N.Y.; but owing to sickness, he was compelled to return home at the end of seven months. At that time travelling by coach was universal in the United States, but Almon Bristol saw the commencement of the construction upon the New York Central Railroad. Although he was a non-combatant during the Rebellion of 1837, he had one adventure that might have proved serious. When on his way to Utica School, and approaching Kingston in a sleigh with David B. Hill, Cornelius Hill and a female passenger, the party was challenged by a sentry; but either through failure to hear the challenge, or to understand its purport, the party kept driving ahead. The sentry, thinking they were trying to pass his post, raised his musket to fire at the short range of thirty yards, and would have done so, had not another soldier who was standing by prevented him.

"He commenced to take an active part in life at the age of twenty years by teaching, in Fredericksburgh and Ameliasburg. Changing his occupation and the venue of his activities, at the age of twenty-two, he took up the position of a dry-goods clerk in Kingston, which post he held for one or two years, when he was appointed deputy-registrar of Picton. He held that important office for two years, and to-day many of the deeds and other documents of the county are to be traced in his clear and finished handwriting.

"But Almon Bristol seems to have been imbued with spirit and energy; and a desire to start in business for his own success led him into the dry-goods business. One step in the right direction was to open a general store in Brooklin, Ontario, for his uncle, Daniel S. Way. Marriage was the next and most important undertaking. In 1851, he married Mary E. Hazard, and, it may here be mentioned, that the golden wedding of this happy and successful couple was celebrated September 5th, 1901, amid universal congratulations; and it may be appropriately added that thirty-two years previously another golden wedding was held in the same house to celebrate the marriage of Mr. Bristol's father and mother.

"His first store was opened at Newburgh, from which place he returned to Picton, where, in 1857, he established the business, which has grown into its present large dimensions. Although keen and active, and even interested in the affairs of business, Mr. Bristol is well on in life, having attained the advanced age of eighty-four years; and most of the responsibility and cares of the Picton store have devolved upon his son, Hazard Bristol, who maintains the high reputation which the business bore under its founder's direction.

"He was born at Newburgh in 1856, attended school until he was sixteen, and then spent some time on the survey of the Central Ontario Railway. He served on the Council and was active in making changes in the electric light system, having served upon the Board of Commissioners of Light and Heat since 1900. It must be gratifying for father and son alike to note the great advance from the first general store at Hallowell Bridge to the metropolitan proportions of the triple fronted emporium of general dry goods now known as "A Bristol & Son" Mr. Hazard Bristol has been in partnership with his father since 1897, and in the conduct of this store employs the cash carrier system and all modern methods of handling his wares and serving the public. He goes to Europe twice a year, to purchase goods, and has crossed the ocean a number of times."

"Another son of Job Aylesworth is William R. Aylesworth, of Belleville, present Clerk of the county of Hastings. He was educated at the Newburgh Grammar School and received a certificate as a school teacher at the early age of seventeen. He taught but a few months, having determined to adopt the profession of a land surveyor. At the age of twenty, he passed the preliminary examination as a student of this profession, and in 1858, we find him attending a course of lectures upon mineralogy and geology, by Professor Chapman of the University of Toronto. He served a three-year apprenticeship with Aylsworth (sic), Bowen and Parry, and in 186, was licensed as a Provincial Land Surveyor. During the five years next ensuing, he was busily engaged at his profession, in public service and private employment; but in 1866, he accepted an appointment as a surveyor, engineer and confidential agent to the Rathbun Company at Deseronto, a position which he retained until 1891. He is at present County Clerk of the county of Hastings, having been appointed in 1893. He is also an agent for the Mohawk Indians of the Bay of Quinte, and an appraiser for the Dominion Government.

"In 1871, he was elected Reeve of the village of Mill Point, in Tyendinaga, and for twenty years was Reeve and member of the county council of Hastings. In 1878, he contested the riding of East Hastings. Being counted out by a technicality he unseated his opponent, John White, but did not stand for re-election. In 1892, he contested East Hastings as a Liberal candidate against W.P. Northrup, K.C., M.P., the present member. Mr. Aylsworth is a member of the Methodist Church, and is also a Mason, a member of the A.O.U.W. (Belleville Lodge), and was chairman of the Board of Trustees at Deseronto, eighteen years.
