Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; Robert Grimmon pages 365 - 368

Robert Grimmon, the founder of the Grimmon family, came from England in 1815. He had been apprenticed as a boy, to a shoemaker names Captain Charles, and it is said that he accompanied him to Canada. It appears that his indentures were cancelled or as it may be (as another account has it) that he ran away to sea; at any rate he shifted for himself from that day that he landed in Quebec. Here he found employment by the day and gradually moving westward brought up at the town of Picton. Being frugal and industrious, he soon was able to take to himself a wife. Having married Mrs. Ruttan, a young widow whose maiden name was Ellis, they began life upon a small farm, which he had purchased on the bay shore, between Picton and Glenora. His descendants have married, among others, into the Ackerman and Vance families. His son James, who married Mary Ackerman, belonged, under Captain Wright, to the Light Horse Cavalry; his grandson, Lieutenant Alva, was for eighteen years in No. 5 Company, 16th Battalion, and is now postmaster at Black River Bridge. Another grandson, Edward, has been Reeve in his township, and is now a member of the County Council.

The Pioneer died a comparatively young man, in 1840. [May be 14 JAN 1842.... verify]

"Harvey F. Grimmon, son of Lieutenant Alva Grimmon, also served in the 16th Battalion, and rose to the same rank as did his father, but he retired owing to press of private business. He was elected member of the South Marysburgh Township Council for 1903, but the same reason that led to his retirement from the militia, caused him to decline a re-election. He owns and occupies an up-to-date farm (lots 21 and 22, 1st concession), which was originally owned by his wife's great-grandfather, but was afterwards purchased by the Lanes and generally known as the "Lane Farm."

"Mr. Grimmon married Anna Whattam; they have two children, Miriam B. and James W."
