2. William Harrison #236696, b. c. February 1760 in England/USA?, d. c. 1835 in Marysburgh, Prince Edward County, Ontario.

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1804; The William Harrison Faily, pp. 384 - 386.

"William Harrison was a soldier in the Royal ranks during the Revolution, He came from England with General Bourgoyne and served under that ill-fated commander during the campaign that culminated at Saratoga. He was an elder brother of Sergeant John Harrison and ultimately settled also in Prince Edward county. He obtained grants of land in what is now the county of Wellington; but land was then so cheap that he failed to take advantage of the grant and chose instead to cast his lot with other United Empire Loyalists in Marysburg, and purchased land there in preference to taking advantage of the grant. It is said that he landed in Prince Edward County in the full vigor of manhood, but with less than ten shillings in his pocket. With untiring energy and perseverance he succeeded in making a home for himself and family. The newly cleared land soon rewarded him for labor and toil, and from it his descendants in the third and fourth generation profit largely to-day. Its is stated on good authority that William Harrison made for himself the first waggon in Marysburg, the wheels being solid pieces of wood with iron tires. With this and a team of oxen he was considered to be well equipped as a farmer and enabled to proceed with the work of early settlement in a more vigorous manner.

"He left four daughters who intermarried with the Powers, Hughes, Hudgin and Minaker families respectively; while his only son married Christie Ann Miller. Timothy settled on the farm now occupied by his son Marshall nears what was then known as Indian Point, (Point Pleasant); the greater portion of which was densely covered with fine maple and beech forest. Here he experienced many of the privations and pleasures of early pioneer life. Although the neighborhood was sparsely settled, yet the pioneers, realizing the necessity of schools, churches and local improvements, succeeded in accomplishing many difficult tasks which resulted in the general upbuilding of the section. In all these undertakings during the early years Timothy Harrison bore an active and useful part. Fish and games were alike abundant; it was not an unusual occurrence to have venison on the table during the greater portion of the year. Many interesting and exciting incidents are told of these early years. It is related that on one occasion as Timothy was returning home quite late from a neighbor's house, he was confronted by some wild animal, but the evening being very dark he could not be sure what it was. Knowing, however, that no time was to be lost, he shot as nearly as possible, between the fiery eyes that gleamed at him so fiercely. His faithful gun, steady nerve and accurate aim saved his life, for he found the dead body of a ferocious grey ribbed lynx with a bullet embedded in its brain, for whose destruction of course he received the legal bounty. Three of his sons reside on near-by farms on the Bay side, N. Marysburg, east of Prinyer's Cove; they are George, Angus and Marshall. Their farms show care and intelligent application on a soil and in a situation not to be excelled in the county.

"On the old homestead lived Marshall Harrison, the youngest of the family residing in the county, and the pioneer in this section, in the matter of entertaining summer visitors. The house, grounds and situation are admirably fitted for the purpose, as the shore is lined with noble oaks, maples and pines, while along it winds a gravel drive-way for miles. In most weathers, yachting, boating and fishing may be indulged in, and in summer there is a cool; breeze, and a safe shore for bathing. From every point of view, this part of the Bay of Quinte is unsurpassed as a visiting place for summer tourists".

"The historian Canniff says: "Sergeant Harrison was a native of Ireland and served for many years in the fifty-third regiment. For some time during the Revolutionary War, he was in the Quartermaster's store and post office. He was altogether Twenty-eight years in the service. At the close of the war, he settled on lot 9 east of the Rock of Marysburg. With the first band, and was probably under Wright in the commissary department for the settlement."

"John Harrison was the half-brother of Sergeant Harrison, who came out with General Bourgoyne during the Revolutionary War. His father was Grand Secretary of the Masonic Lodge in Ireland in the neighborhood of Bally Claire. John was engaged for a time as Army Postmaster, and after the close of the war, he came with others of the loyalists to what is now North Marysburg and settled on lot 14, L.S., where Irvin Harrison now resides. He was a Scotch-Irish, his father's mother being a Cochrane and blood relation to the Cochranes who head the line from which Lord Dundonald is descended. He was a man of remarkable strength and activity and there are living witnesses in the county to-day, who have seen him when over eighty years of age mount his horse without a block; vaulting to his saddle like a trooper of twenty-five.

"Archibald Harrison, fourth son of John Harrison, was a man of much more than ordinary ability. He served as township and county councillor and took an active interest in public affairs. He was a Liberal and a true Reformer of the old School. By industry and thrift he amassed considerable property, and though open-handed and generous was able to leave a fair share to each of his children."

Edward Ivan Harrison

He Had Long Been Prominent in Prince Edward

Picton Times

"There passes away from the community of Cressy life on Sept. 2nd, 1920, Edward Ivan Harrison, last surviving son of the late Archibald and Sarah Harrison. He was a man long known in this region as a farmer of competency in farm things and ability in general questions beyond the farm and fireside. Born in 1850 (August 30th) on the farm in Cressy now owned by H.H. Horsey, he was raised to manhood there on his father's place and taught the rudiments of that great industry that extracts from the soil the products which sustain the life of man and beast. He spent most of his three score years and ten on a farm in Cressy. There was, however, an interval of western adventure and enterprise. He took up a section of land near Brandon, built on it, and disposed of the place after a few years stay there. He thereupon settled down in Cressy and lived there with but short interruptions until his death.

"His last years were years of perplexity, struggling for several years against failing health and a peculiar malady of a nervous kind yet with a steadfast spirit full of faith and hope. Two years and three months of this time he spent upon his bed unable to get up. In spite of his distressful physical disability he maintained his spirit of humor and joviality, delighted to talk and visit with his neighbors and to exchange counsel and advice on familiar topics. He was of the temperament that could keep cheerful and hopeful under adversity. And at the very last he met the Grim Reaper with a smile that was frozen on his countenance by the icy hand of death. He possessed a mind of resourceful associations and he retained his mental alertness to the end. He was thus able to guide his farm work from the bedside and to bear up against "a sea of troubles" against adverse conditions that might well have made a lesser man succumb.

"He was a staunch churchman, one of the old guard of Cressy Methodism whose numbers are gradually thinning out with the lapse of years, making way for a new generation to take up the burden that they are laying down. In matters of political affiliation he was a firm supporter of Liberal politics and a great admirer of the leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

"He leaves to mourn him a widow, Mrs. Ida Harrison, two sister, Mrs. W.Y. Boyd, Kingston, and Mrs. Catharine Hall, Utica, N.Y., also a niece whom he reared from infancy, and being a lover of the youth always he brought up three boys from childhood. He had a great host of friends who will think upon him with affection and regret, and drop a sigh about his grave as he lies in the peaceful slopes of Cressy churchyard."
