Prominent Suicide

Harry S. Boyd, Young Married Man, Takes his Life with Revolver at Sodus.

Harry S. Boyd, a young married man of Sodus, committed suicide soon after noon Thursday by shooting himself in the temple with a revolver. Temporary Insanity is given as the cause of his act.

Dr. Charles Hitchcock was called to attend the man, but he died in a short time. It was noticed that he walked from room to room in his home in a strange manner just before he shot himself. He went into his bedroom, lay down on his bed and fired the shot that killed him. Coroner Carr, of Williamson, who was called, rendered a verdict of death by gunshot wound.

Mr. Boyd was 32 years of age and a popular young man. He had conducted (a) meat market with his father, but during the last three years he had been with his father in the coal business. Mr. Boyd had been sick for a few days, but it was thought he was getting well, when he shot himself.

The unfortunate young man leaves his wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millard P. Boyd; one sister, Miss Florence Boyd and a large circle of relatives.
