(Family lived in South Bay, twelve children)

The Collier Family Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1905; (pages 200 - 203)

"Peter Collier had been an officer in the British Army in England and there married his first wife, whose name cannot be ascertained. He came to Canada and settled in South Marysburg towards the close of the 18th century at about the time the United Empire Loyalists were taking possession.

"He ha a very large family, nineteen in all, some of whom died young, and others who left the country. We can only account for twelve, and whether any of these, or how many were by his first wife, whom, as we have said, he married in England, we cannot tell. One of his children, John, the ninth in order of birth married Eva Dulmage, so that the Collier family was doubly related to one of the oldest and best families of Prince Edward County. His son William, who was married in the United States, mindful of his military extraction, and inheriting his father's loyalty, was present and fought in the battle of Lundy's Lane. He became a large land owner in this district. Lydia and Isabella Collier married, the first Lewis Minaker, and the second Samuel Ostrander, thus connecting the Colliers with other two old and important families.

"The Pioneer was a gentleman of the old school, and just as his Old Country love of discipline would have made him the object of remark even among military men in the colonies, so his habits, as a strict disciplinarian in private life, marked him out for remark, in this regard, among the fraternity of settlers in Prince Edward County. Despite this characteristic trait, or was it rather in some way because of it, he was known to be an affectionate father, and at bottom rather tender-hearted. His descendants are well known and held in high respect in the county.

"His son, James Collier, married Mary Dulmage. They had eight children, of whom the seventh, Jacob D., was well-known for the active and intelligent interest which he took in municipal affairs, and for his ability as a ship-builder.

He built a number of vessels at the old Roblins Mills, below Picton, some of which he afterwards commanded himself in person.

"Jacob D. Collier had one son, Peter Collier, who now owns and occupies the old homestead originally granted to his great-grandfather, Peter Collier. Mr. Collier, present owner of this historic homestead, takes an active interest in the affairs of the township and county, and has served for some years in the council. He has in his possession the original deed or patent issued by the Crown, in the reign of George III., to Peter Collier, and which is inscribed upon parchment and has attached to it an enormous seal of wax always used for these deeds at that period. The document is dated 1804, but no doubt the pioneer had drawn his lands and taken possession of the same for some years before receiving his patent."

Captain Hicks

The funeral takes place this afternoon, with Masonic ritual, of the late Capt. Alfred Hicks, one of the best known navigators of the Bay of Quinte, in command of the steamer Varuna, for nearly a quarter of a century, who died at his Queen street home on Saturday, after an illness of two years from cancer. The late Capt. Hicks was born on May 22nd, 1848, the youngest of a family of twelve sons of Joseph Hicks and May Minaker, He was born on the old homestead in North Marysburgh, just across from Waupoos Island where first landed his United Empire Loyalist grandparents, who built their home just near the tree under which they camped the first night they spent in Canada, when they left New York state, and whose stump is still to be seen r0day. Receiving a liberal education, Alfred Hicks qualified for a teacher and for five years taught the school in his home neighborhood and in Wellington.

His career as a sailor first began in 1881, when he went on the steamer Varuna, under the late Capt. Porte. He left the 'Varunna' for a few years to take control of the ferry Mary Ethel, which plied between the Ameliasburgh shore and Belleville. With the building of the bay bridge the ferry was discontinued and then he went on the steamer Spartan for a season. Capt. Hicks became master of the Varuna with the death of Capt. Porte, and also bought an interest in the boat. He continued on the Varuna until his health failed him, two years ago. Then he retired to his West Lake farm to come to Picton to reside, Capt. Hicks is survived by his widow, but no family, his two sons having died when young. He also leaves one brother, Capt. Calvin Hicks, of Toronto, and one sister, Mrs. Charles Lacey, of Richford, N.Y.

Albert Rodway Injured.

An accident occurred on Friday at the Old Homestead factory, Picton, resulting in serious injuries to Albert Rodway, a farmer living in the Fish Lake neighborhood. Mr. Rodway has [sic] just finished unloading a load of corn and stepped out on the wagon tongue, it is supposed, to get a line that had fallen on the ground, In some way he fell between the horses and they became frightened, running away and dragging Mr. Rodway under the wagon. He was seriously bruised, the wheel running over him. Fortunately, the horses were stopped after running only a few rods, and Mr. Rodway released from the lines, in which hew had become entangled. He was rushed to hospital, and at last reports is recovering.

Leland:

PEARSALL, Leland Fred

Born May 23, 1921, "100 years", passed away April 7, 2022 at the Prince Edward County Memorial Hospital.

Meeting his goal of 100 yrs was one of the best days of his life. He was a 5th generation farmer on the family farm working hard and enjoyed a long, full and very healthy life. He had the enjoyment of many friendships and married to the love of his life and business partner, Barbara, for 76.5 yrs. He always said that he lived at the best of times to see so many changes like walking behind a plough all day to prepare a field, to the big tractors of today sowing his fields in a day. He became very fit and strong, laughing about those thinking they could arm wrestle this young skinny guy and underestimating his strength. He milked cows, then moved to beef cattle and finally was a Drover with Ross Mangan, a cattle buyer. "I've been in most barns in this County". He had so many stories and they always ended with how he treated people honestly. Honesty was a strong value that he held high and always lived by. He loved helping people and supported farmers to get their herd going or sitting with farmers to help and teach them how to buy good cattle for reasonable prices at the sales barns. A fellow farmer with a loaded truck and a flat tire prompted Leland to stop and load the man's cow onto his truck and took her to the sales barn allowing the man to fix his tire and still get to see his cow sold.

Dancing was a great joy for both parents and he was dancing on his 95th birthday and doing the old fashioned waltz like a pro. He had his trade mark quick sense of humour. He was still making us all laugh right up until the day before he went to hospital. He believed that you add 7 minutes to your life with every laugh you have. Leland had the distinction of being a lifetime donor to the Picton Blood Donor Clinic and a Life member of the Picton Elks Lodge.

He is predeceased by his parents Rodman "Earl" Pearsall and Eva Viola Sullivan and his daughter Evva "Roanne" Therrien, and his sister Reta Brummell and brother-in-law Marshall Brummell. Leland will be sadly missed by daughter Rilla Rhodes (Leith), son-in-law Jack Therrien, grandsons Dustin Therrien (Crystal) and Derek Therrien. Remembered by his great grandchildren as GG pop to Arlo, Deacon, and Raya Therrien.
