"Revd. Lucius L. Root of Upper Alton, Illinois, thinks that there was a Solomon Root who belonged to this family, a son of William and Hannah, who lived either in Lebanon or Hebron, probably the latter place, and was an earnest tory during the Revolutionary struggle. At the raising of the first liberty pole* in Hebron, having no cannon, the enthusiastic crowd tried a pump log girt with iron, which of course burst. The pole was cut down in the night, and on the stump in the morning was found the doggerel.

"Here's Hebron's God cut from the stump, We'll sing his praise and fire the pump."

Solomon Root was the author of this rhyme. That was in 1776. The tradition runs that he went to Nova Scotia, and that his descendants are found in Canada and northern New York."

* A liberty pole is a tall wooden pole, often topped with a "liberty cap" (Phrygian cap) or flag, used as a symbol of protest and American defiance against British rule before and during the Revolutionary War. Erected on village greens or in town squares, these poles served as rallying points for the Sons of Liberty.

From Wikipedia: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Delhi,_New_York

The town was named after Delhi, India, in honor of founder Ebenezer Foote, who was known as "The Great Mogul". The pronunciation is attributed to Foote's rival Erastus Root, who reportedly exclaimed upon learning of the town's name, "Delhi, Hell-high! Might as well call it Foote-high." [4] An alternate explanation of its pronunciation and namesake is due to its location, high on the Delaware River. [3]

Also note that the town of Root, Montgomery County, New York was named after Erastus ROOT.
1820: The census shows that the family had two slaves.

Published "Root's Arithmetic," the first arithmetic based on the decimal currency.
Was said to have been a tall and portly man., and had an interest in the genealogy of the Root Family.

"Daniel ROOT, Pittsferry, aged 86, served under Capt. H.? SHERWOOD and Col. L.P. SHERWOOD; was at the battle at Ogdensburg; Served six months."

Note that Pitts Ferry is on the north shore of the St. Lawrence River, and is directly across the river from Jefferson County, New York, That would be an easy trip, even in a small boat.. There are a number of small islands, including Grindstone Island opposite Clayton, New York. The Erastus ROOT family settled in Picton are connected to Jefferson County,

Nelson B. Root of Napanee Aged 92

In Good Health Though an Invalid - Born in Picton, Jan. 25, 1841

"Napanee, Jan. 25 - Another milestone has been reached in the life of Nelson B. Root who today quietly observed his 92nd birthday anniversary at the home of his daughter Mrs. Sam Smith and Mr. Smith with whom he has been residing for some time. Your representative called at the Smith home on Wednesday and found the old gentleman seated in his invalid chair and looking the picture of health. Pinned on his vest was the medal which was presented to him by the Government for service rendered during the Fenian Raid.

"Always a splendid conversationalist Mr. Root referred at some length to his early life spent in Picton and to the many years residence in Napanee. Mr. Root was born in the town of Picton on January 25th, 1841, a son of Erastus Root and Mary Arnold. His father was one of the best known stone masons in Prince Edward County. When a young man, he assisted his father, but during his long years of active work has been a plasterer and was an expert in his chosen calling.

"When a young man he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Brown of Picton and over sixty years ago Mr. and Mrs. Root came to Napanee."

Napanee Deaths

Death of Nelson B. Root

"Nelson B. Root, one of the oldest residents of Napanee and known to scores of the older generation of the town, passed peacefully away on Wednesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs., Sam Smith, Water Street West, and the funeral service will be held from the Smith home on Friday afternoon and will be conducted by Rev. R.T. Richards of Grace United Church. Interment will be made in Riverview Cemetery.

"The deceased observed his birthday on January 25th, having reached the fine old age of 92 years. Up until two weeks ago he seemed to be in apparent good health although for the past few years he had to use a wheel chair. His hearing was excellent as was his eyesight and his passing was due to old age.

"Mr. Root was a native of Picton, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Erastus Root and when a young man came to Napanee with his bride and this has been his home ever since. His avocation in life was that of a plasterer and during the long number of years in which he worked at his trade he assisted in the completion of hundreds of homes and stores and other buildings, notably the post office and Trinity United Church. He was one of the most skilled plasterers in Napanee in his day and had plenty of work to do as a result.

"Almost three years to the day his life partner passed away. The deceased was a member of the volunteer forces in the Fenian Raid of 1866 and being passionately fond of music was drummer in the band which was stationed in Kingston. He was the recipient of a medal which he wore almost to the last and which he prized very highly, He welcomed visitors and was always glad to have a newspaper reporter call in to see him, during which time he would give numerous episodes of the early days.

"During his declining years when forced to use the wheel chair he was tenderly cared for by his daughter, Mrs. Sam Smith with whom he made his home. He leaves to mourn his loss two sons, Albert Root of the "Beaver" staff, and Walter of Montreal, also three daughters, Mrs. Sam Smith, Mrs. Albert Smith and Mrs. James Thompson, all of Napanee."

Work in Gardens Still Holds Appeal

"Years rest lightly on the shoulders of Erastus Root who recently marked his 88th birthday. He makes his home with his daughter Mrs. Jack Shannon, East Main Street, Picton.

"These fine days, Mr. Root is to be seen working two gardens - those of his daughter and of his granddaughter, Mrs. Robert Jamieson, where he will have a fine array of vegetables in season. Last year, Mr. Root dug 26 bushels of potatoes. Keep young by being active, would seem to be his motto."
